The Premier Announces His New Ministry

Ottawa, July 13—Hon. Arthur Meighen has formed his administration and, with the exception of Hon. Pierre Blondin and Hon. S. F. Tolmie, all have taken the oath of office. They will be sworn in by the clerk of the privy council soon as they arrive. The new members of the government are Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Colchester, N. S., minister of public works; Hon. R. W. Wigmore, St. John, minister of customs, and Hon. E. K. Spinney, Yarmouth-Clare, N. S., without portfolio. Other changes are that Sir James Loughheed becomes minister of interior and Hon. Jas. A. Calder, president of the privy council and minister of immigration and colonization. The department of mines will probably be continued to be administered by the minister of interior. The new department of

Million Dollar Suit Over Wreck Of Circus Train

The Hagenbock-Wallace circus organization, which showed here last month, sustained an enormous loss; two years ago when its train was wrecked on the Michigan City (Ind.) Railway, at Ivanhoe (Ind.), 107 persons losing their lives, including the wife and two children of the circus postmaster, who led the parade through the Streets of John, riding a bicycle. A large part of the circus was destroyed. The administrators of the estates of those who lost their lives have just instituted ninety suits against the railroad, aggregating more than $1,000,000, alleging that the accident was the fault of the railway. When the employees of the circus sat in their dining tent on Prince Edward Island recently there was almost complete silence. It was the second anniversary of the terrible disaster at Baden (Ind.)

SAYS HIS FAITH CAN'T BE SHAKEN

Halifax Man Believes Tanlac Will Rout Any Case of Rheumatism

"Only those who have been racked with pain by rheumatism as I was, can fully appreciate the way I feel about Tanlac, the medicine that relieved me of all my pain and suffering, and made me a well man," said John T. Davis, who lives at 11-2 North Clifton St., Halifax, N. S.

"I was in a mighty bad way before I started on Tanlac," said Mr. Davis. "For three years I had suffered with rheumatism, and it seemed to be all over my body. But it troubled me most in the shoulders, they would get so sore and stiff that I couldn't raise my arms. I also had a dull, throbbing pain just like tooth-ache in my arms and shoulders, that would keep me awake for hours, and sudden sharp pains in my legs and knees which would get so stiff that I could barely walk. I had little or no appetite, fell off in weight and got so weak and run down that it was just all I could do to stay on the job and I tell you that some days I felt like life wasn't worth living."

"But now after taking seven bottles of Tanlac I am a well man and happy at the wonderful relief it has given me. I've got a fine appetite and can eat anything that is placed before me. I've already gained twelve pounds in weight and just feel full of energy and go all the time. But best of all the rheumatism has left me entirely, my shoulders and legs are as supple as ever and I haven't had an ache or a pain of any sort in my body. Nothing will ever shake my faith in Tanlac for this for I've proved it myself, and have every confidence in recommending it to others."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J. Morris, in Redbank by Wm. M. Sullivan and in Dartmouth by O. Hildebrand.

- The new cabinet is the following: Premier and minister of external affairs, Hon. Arthur Meighen.
- Minister of trade and commerce, Sir George Foster.
- Secretary of state, Hon. A. L. Sifton.
- Minister of justice, Hon. C. J. Doherty.
- President of the Council and minister of immigration, Hon. J. A. Calder.
- Minister of finance, Sir Henry Drayton.
- Minister of railways, Hon. J. D. Reid.
- Minister of interior, Sir James Loughheed.
- Postmaster general, Hon. P. E. Blondin.
- Minister of marine and fisheries, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne.
- Minister of labor, Hon. G. D. Robertson.
- Minister of militia, Hon. Hugh Guthrie.
- Minister of agriculture, Hon. S. F. Tolmie.
- Minister of public works, Hon. F. B. McCurdy.
- Minister of customs, Hon. R. C. Wigmore.

Election Writs

Writs for the election of the new ministers, Hon. F. B. McCurdy, have not been issued but the elections will be brought on as soon as possible. It is expected that both the new ministers will be readily endorsed by their constituents. While the new ministry is now complete, it is possible that other changes may soon be forthcoming.

The new government consists of ten Conservatives, six Liberals and one Labor representative. The Conservatives are the prime minister, Sir George Foster, Sir James Loughheed, Sir Henry Drayton, Sir Edward Kemp, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. Dr. Reid, Hon. Pierre Blondin, Hon. F. B. McCurdy and Hon. J. A. Calder, Hon. A. L. Sifton, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Hon. S. F. Tolmie and Hon. E. K. Spinney, and Labor is represented by Hon. Gideon Robertson. The first cabinet council was held immediately after the ministers took the oath of office.

Hon. R. W. Wigmore, who was on his way to Ottawa, took the oath of office in Montreal, where he met His Excellency, who left today to visit Newfoundland.

Hon. R. W. Wigmore, who has been chosen to represent New Brunswick in the cabinet, is a native of St. John, the constituency he represents in parliament. He is a comparatively young man, being born in 1873, while his colleague from Nova Scotia is two years younger, or the same age as the new prime minister. He was a very successful commissioner for the city of St. John and, in 1917, was chosen as the Conservative-Unionist candidate in that city and elected by a very large majority. He is now interested in shipping and is a strong advocate of the improvement of the port of St. John. His reelection is conceded by all parties, and he may secure acclamation.

Hon. Fleming Blanchard McCurdy, Conservative-Unionist member of parliament for Colchester, was born at Old Barnes, Colchester county, February 17, 1876, the son of James and Amelia J. (Archibald) McCurdy. He was educated in the public schools. He began his business career in the service of the Halifax Banking Co. at Truro, in 1896 leaving the bank in 1901 to embark in financial business for himself under the firm name of F. B. McCurdy & Co., which has six banking and brokerage offices in the Maritime provinces, including one in St. John. He was for several years president of the Halifax Board of Trade. He was first elected to parliament for Colchester in 1911, defeating Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance in the Laurier

Saving Home Grown Seed

Although the cost of seed that is used in planting a vegetable garden is small compared with the returns, it is very easy to grow the seed one's self and moreover, if pure seed of a good strain is produced at home, one is surer of having what is required.

Seed of most varieties of vegetables can be grown at home of as good or better quality than is the imported seed, but to ensure having good seed it should be saved from the best plants rather than from those which happen to have been left in the garden unused.

A few plants of peas left to mature without picking any green pods from them will furnish enough seed for the garden next year.

Reserve a few feet of the row of beans for seed, or, better still, mark a few productive plants, which are free from disease and do not pick green beans from them. Quickness of drying is important with beans and peas, as with most seed, and it should be cleaned and kept dry until the following spring.

If seed is damp it is liable to mould and lose its germinating power. For this reason it is particularly important in the case of corn to dry the seed thoroughly and rapidly. When corn becomes ready for use, a few of the earliest and best developed ears should be marked to be left until ripe for seed.

One cucumber will contain enough seed for the wants of the home gardener. A specimen which is typical in shape and colour of the variety grown or the type desired should be left on the vine until it turns yellow, when it is cut open and the seeds spread out thinly and dried and put in an envelope until needed.

Seed is readily obtained from lettuce. One plant will produce more than enough seed for home use, and no doubt some radish plants have gone to seed, which may be left until the seed ripens.

The seed of tomatoes for home use should be saved from the plant bearing the largest crop of early and best fruit. The tomatoes are cut in half and the pulp pressed out into some vessel, adding about one third its volume of water. Put in dark room until fermentation sets in, which will be in about two days, when the seed will separate readily from the pulp. It is then washed out and spread out to dry but not in the sun. When dry, store in paper bags until needed.

The seed of other vegetables can also easily be saved, and there are many persons in Canada who have their own specially selected strains of different sorts.

POOR YEAR FOR PARTRIDGE

Henry Braithwaite, the veteran guide, who returned a short time ago from an extended trip to the Miramichi woods, says that the present season has not been as favorable to partridges as last year. He says that cold weather in the early part of June was bad for the newly hatched mortality among them.

The fire department was called this afternoon for a fire under the roof of the houses occupied by J. R. Kennedy, Carleton street. The double roof interfered with the work of the firemen. Damage was not great.

He was appointed parliamentary secretary for the department of militia and defence, July 19, 1916. In the general elections of 1917 he was elected as representative of his native constituency, Colchester, and on February 26, 1918, was appointed parliamentary secretary of the newly formed Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and chairman of the Invalided Soldiers' Commission. He held these positions until 1919.

He is enthusiastic golfer, fisherman, hunter and motorist and is a member of a dozen clubs and associations, having been president of the Wanderers' A. A. C. of Halifax and Automobile Association. His wife was Miss Florence Bridgman Pearson, daughter of the Hon. B. F. Pearson, well known as a promoter and capitalist. They were united in 1893 and have two sons. In religion the hon. member is a Presbyterian.
