EDMONTON BULLETIN

Several changes in real estate have taken place in the town of late. A Dallas has sold his fine house, which he recently purchased, to Mr. Stauch, of Wetaskiwin, and father of R. V. Stauch, of the Innisfail Saddlery and Harness Co.

Mrs. A. B. McCrae, well known here for so many years, the late Mr. A. B. McCrae being mayor of the town at one time and in the harness business for a long period, has sold her residence to Mr. Wilson, of Mayton, east of town, and yesterday afternoon a successful sale of her furniture and other effects.

Ed. Chazy has sold his residence and purchased the one where W. Frenckner resided and is moving in.

A. Wilcox, running a successful boarding house for some years, has sold out to Mr. Downie, a new arrival. The former intends going back to the States, where some of his family reside.

A successful dance, called the harvest ball, came off last evening at the opera house and was well attended to good music by the Boode orchestra.

A special train ran through at 7.50 a.m. on Monday, transferring the patients from Brandon to the new asylum at Ponoka.

The ladies' aid of the Methodist church, held their garden party at the opera house on Wednesday. The weather being so hot, the party was held in the spacious room of the old school house. The town band rendered good music and the proceedings were entirely successful.

We are pleased to see Banker W. R. Wilson back again with his family from Winnipeg, where they have been during the holidays.

Next Wednesday, the 2nd proximo, the Icelanders at Markerville, celebrate their national holiday by a series of sports, ending up by a dinner and a ball in the evening.

SWALLOWHURST. A most successful picnic was held at the Wahsah Creek on July 12th, in aid of the church building fund.

The opposing teams in the baseball match were Edison vs. Manola. Edison succeeded in winning the victory from Manola in spite of the fine and sportsmanlike game which the visitors gave to the home local team.

In the football game the order was reversed, Edison defeated 2-0 to all by the Pembina boys.

Fourteen prizes were given away to the winners of various sports and games and races, which were run off during the afternoon. Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. English and Mrs. Allen, assisted by a number of ladies, had charge of the refreshment stall. They handed the treasurer of the Bowden township, Ed. Chazy, all the expenses had been paid. Most of this money will be used on the church which is to be built very shortly at Clyde.

The Rev. A. C. Trench wishes to thank the ladies and gentlemen of the district for the kindness in providing dinner for the many visitors.

We are glad to hear that Miss Bell, who has been ill, is now on the convalescent list.

Much excitement is caused by the laying of the C.N.R. steel in the district. The first was laid on Friday, the day when the first construction train comes into town. Preparations are being made for the entertainment of a large number of visitors.

Miss May Atkins is paying a visit to her mother at her residence on the Wahsah Creek.

Mrs. Smith, the wife of Pastor Smith, has also come to spend the summer vacation in the settlement of Swallowhurst, July 12th.

WAINWRIGHT. Bulletin News Service. The homestead of Thomas O'Reilly was sold to John Worthington, a G.T.P. engineer, and is one of the most valuable farms in this district. It is situated on the northwest of 10-45-7 and was sold at $25 an acre.

A solid gold engraved pocket watch, here are now three or four general stores, viz., Wallis Bros., S. P. Lee and D. B. Hines; one big hardware and furniture store owned and operated by J. R. Graham; J. E. Bell, drug store; I. Olson, harness shop; one livery yard, managed by G. O. Gieson; three machinery shops; one blacksmith shop; two livery barns; one hotel; and one butcher shop; one pool hall and one real estate office. The town bears the name Donaldia, while the public at large has petitioned the Government to have the place called Edsvald, and the post office was opened under that name the 15th of May.

The petition was signed by 112 of the citizens of this neighborhood, in asking for a post office service for the town and for the name.

Geo. P. Smith, M.P.P., from Camrose, deserves our heartfelt thanks for the pains he took in the people's interest in working for and putting through said petition.

Everybody is welcome to see our country and town down this important meeting held and very satisfactorily carried through.

The first was a meeting of those interested in cricket. This was well attended. Funds and members were raised for the club players, and it is hoped that the new club, which will arrive in the course of a week when practice will commence and we understand already one or two

AT DEATH'S DOOR FROM KIDNEY DISEASE. Saved Only by "FRUIT-A-TIVES". CLANBRASSIE, ONT. "Two years ago, the doctor made forty-four calls on me, and then said he had done all he could for me. I was suffering with intense Kidney Trouble and Inflammation had set in. Two other doctors were consulted and agreed that nothing could be done to help me. My only medicine, I am in excellent health, and "Fruit-a-tives" is the medicine that cured me after I had been at Death's Door for months. I am glad to be able to give you this testimonial. It may benefit some other woman suffering as I suffered, as I believe that I would not be alive today had I not used "Fruit-a-tives". Mrs. E. WEBBER. Soc. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. MANY ACCIDENTS IN MONTREAL. Six Bodies Lie in the Morgue as Result of Violent Deaths - Deaths From Drowning, Burning and Train Wrecks. Montreal, July 29.—Six bodies lie in the morgue tonight as the result of accidents yesterday and today. A Syrian woman who was known as Annie Mitchell, was burned to death as the result of a coal oil stove upsetting in her room on City Hall Avenue last night. She was heavily injured. The bodies of John Andrews, a married man of Point St. Charles, and Augustin Nelson of St. Timothy St., were found floating in the river yesterday. The cause of their death is unknown and inquests will be held tomorrow. A swimming instructor, Harry Whitley, a Canadian Pacific railway yardman, fell beneath the wheels of a train at St. Hubert, and was killed. A young Scotchman, on the Grand Trunk tracks at St. Hubert, was killed.

TO TAKE OVER THE LINE. Conference Between Railway Officials and N. T. R. Commissioner. Ottawa, July 31.—President C. M. Hays, of the G. T. P., was here today in conference with Sir Wilfrid, Hon. G. P. Graham, and Commissioner Young, of the National Transcontinental with regard to the taking over of the G. T. P. completed section of the National Transcontinental from Superior Junction to Winnipeg under the terms of the company's agreement with the government as provided for by the act. The company expect to handle a large portion of the wheat crop over this road to Fort William this fall. The question of taking over other parts of the National Transcontinental as completed and putting on a train service was also discussed. No definite arrangements have yet been made and a further conference will be held later.
