DELEGATES INTERVIEW THE GOVERNOR.

The interview granted the delegates of the United Fishermen's Movement on Saturday, by His Excellency Governor, Capt. Jesse Winsor, out of the present condition of the fishery, and the impossibility of continuing the fishery until a reduction in the cost of living had been made, the spokesman for the delegates informed his Excellency of their intention to go to the Prime Minister, who he told them that the House would open at the earliest. He pointed out that this date would be too late for any contemplated reduction of duties to be of value for this year's fishery, and asked his Excellency to use his influence to have the Legislature convened immediately. His Excellency indicated that as a constitutional governor he had to take the advice of his ministers, but he promised to lay their case before the Prime Minister and see what could be done.

An Appeal

LETTER TO FISHERMEN OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

The following circular letter has been addressed to the fishermen of Newfoundland by the Delegates of the United Fishermen.—We are about to start a campaign throughout the various Districts for the purpose of securing a reduction of taxation, and are aware at the present time of the difficulties the fishermen are facing. We hope to make both ends meet, and it is utterly impossible last year to pay enough fish to pay expenses and feed and clothe our wives and families. Unless the taxes are reduced the same state of affairs will exist this year. There is no hope for us under present conditions. We want men will leave their native land for foreign shores, and on the people will fall the burden of a tax that will be unbearable. It is for us to be up and doing. The House of Assembly must open and the taxes must be reduced twenty per cent. to allow the merchants to supply the fishery next summer. This is our whole object—the best of our country for our children. Will you help us? We are counting on you. We hope to address you at these matters.

Yours truly,
JESSE WINSOR, Chairman.

Popular President Passed Away.

The Evening Telegram—A gloom was cast over the town on Jan. 4th, when the sad news reached us that Frank Cull had passed away at the General Hospital, and as he was known by all this town, as a prominent young man, and a general favorite with all who came in contact with him. He will be missed by all who knew him, and was one of our young men who had overseas. He was a member of the A. (Chaplin's Cove) and members of the Brownsdale, Old Pelican, Lower Cove, and Burnt Point Lodges, and friends from the nearby settlements came to pay the last tribute to one who was respected by all. His funeral was held in the C. of E. on Jan. 8th. The writer and community joins in sympathy to the grief-stricken parents.—B.B. Chaplin Cove, D.B.V., Jan. 12, 1922.
