Evening Mercury. OFFICE: 211 NASSAU STREET. THURSDAY EVG. JUNE 18, 1868.

There is at present a necessity for the Health officers to be active in the discharge of their duties.

Horse thieves are operating in the neighbourhood of London.

A party returning to Galt from a concert in Strabane a few evenings ago, almost came to grief, in consequence of some mischievous individuals having lifted some of the logs out of a crossway and piled them together.

DROWNED.—On Sunday afternoon a young French Canadian, named Paul Girardin, was drowned at Ottawa while bathing.

GREAT CLEARING SALE.—The proprietors of the Britannia House announce in our columns to-day a great clearing sale of spring and summer goods.

SUMMER.—The hot weather has fairly set in, and we think somewhat earlier than usual.

GRAND CONCERT IN ERIN.—We have the pleasure of announcing that a grand concert, complimentary to the Erin Volunteer Company, will be held in the Town Hall, Erin village, on Dominion Day, the 1st of July.

PRESTON MINERAL BATHS.—We would call attention to the advt., of these Baths. Mr. Cornell has at great expense put in a new boiler, and made many improvements in the Bath rooms.

THE DELEWARE TRAGEDY.—The Free Press says: Thomas Jones and his daughter Elizabeth were brought to this city on Delaware on Tuesday, in charge of Constable Fitzalan and lodged in jail.

THE MELADY MURDER.—The correspondent of the Huron Signal writes that paper concerning the late murder near Seaford as follows:—The inquest on this horrible case was held on Monday, in J. Brydon's hotel, Edmondville, and on Tuesday and Wednesday in Mr Downey's Hall, Seaford, when it was adjourned until Wednesday, the 17th, to allow time for the opinion of Professor Croft, Toronto to be obtained relative to spots on the prisoners' clothes, supposed to be blood, and for perfecting other evidence.

DETECTIVE CULLEN.—The Gazette says: Detective Cullen is still progressing favorably, and may be considered in a great measure out of danger.

Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church.

When the Synod opened this morning, the overture on marriage with a deceased wife's sister was taken up and discussed at considerable length.

THE FENIANS.—The Montreal correspondent of the Globe says: Accounts received here from the frontier are to the effect that confidential officers appointed by the American Government have found nothing at all to warrant apprehensions of a Fenian attack, and that General Sherman, who is in command of the northern frontier, is actively on the alert.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF WATERLOO.

Fifty-three years ago to-day the two greatest generals of their own or perhaps any other age, confronted each other on the plains of Waterloo.

THE TORONTO RACES.

The annual races of the Toronto Turf Club opened on Wednesday.

THE PRESS ASSOCIATION OF CANADA.

Secretary of the Press Association issued a circular to the members, setting the arrangements made for the annual meeting and excursion.

REMOVED RESIGNATION.—A telegram from Ottawa says that it is rumored the seat of government that Mr. Kenny, Receiver General of the Dominion, intends to resign his seat.

THE NASHVILLE DISPATCH.

The Nashville Dispatch of today says that within the past five years there have been four murders within a range of sixty-five miles of the city.

30th Wellington Battalion Drill.

Col. Higginbotham has returned from London, whither he went for instructions with regard to calling out the Battalion for drill.

There is at present a necessity for the Health officers to be active in the discharge of their duties.
