Some men never think of owning their homes
That's their business.
We think of nothing else—that's our business.

Just how much and how well we have thought along these lines is attested by the feasibility of our plan of home-getting. You merely pay each month the cent you now pay, and in the end the home is yours.

tian, is billed as one of the leading attractions at Starland tonight.

The story is based upon the love of a Roman citizen for a Christian slave girl, and the jealousy of a Roman woman; an empress, who has the girl given to the lions. The realistic scenes of the arena; the fidelity with which the whole preduction. worked out, the contrast of the present time with ideas of 2000 years ago, completes an interesting play that will unquestionably be a success.

Other great pictures are the Bachelor
