"Is that consistent with the story, gentlemen, of the prosecution? But let me proceed. Having soon after this marriage discovered the character of the woman he had made that the story, and she may have thus received her death.

"These hypotheses are for your conditions and she may have the story death." of the woman he had made his wife; life, what does he do?

"Most men, as my learned friend burden. But Lord Clydesfold, the prisoner, does not do this. Rather than drag the honored name of his forefathers in the mud, he elects to leave this woman, to drop the name which he had given her, and, providing for her every want-aye, and luxury -he separates himself from her, bargaining only that she shall leave him

"I ask you, gentlemen, is this consistent with the guilt which the prose-cution lay to his charge? Under this assumed name my client seeks refuge in this secluded spot. He does not dash into a life of dissipation, he does not seek forgetfulness in a reckless course of living, but he comes here, and for months leads the life of student and of a gentleman.

"The only notice that is bestowed upon him by his neighbors is that which is attracted by deeds of charity. It is impossible that such a man client should live, however much he might desire it, a life of seclusion. And though he shrank from making friends, friendships are, so to speak, thrust upon him. He is the honored guest of the highest and the best-known of the inhabitants. "I think I shall not go too far when I say that I shall call witnesses who will speak of this man, not only with respect most deep and profound, but with affection. And this man you are asked to sentence to death for a crime of the most vulgar and sordid description.

"What is the story? That this unfortunate woman came to Lord Clydesfold's cottage on the night before her death, and demanded to see him. shall not attempt to disprove the evidence of the servant or of Alfred, who heard the deceased declare that her husband wished her death.

"But, gentlemen, I call upon you to draw a distinction between such words used by her, and such words used by him. All through this interview his manner to her was one of patient forbearance, while hers was one of furious taunting. Had Lord Clydes fold intended murdering her he would have committed the crime that night, and not have waited until she had go back to the village and spread the story of her marriage." Ther was a buzz of excitement. Olivia's hands clasped each other more

'He goes to meet her in the Hawkwood Spinney at four o'clock the fol-lowing day. He knows that on that day the marriage of a well-known and well-beloved young lady takes place Hawkwood itself; that there will be an excitement attend-ing such a marriage; that the whole of the village will be congregated in those very grounds; that perwill be roaming all over the the prosecution ask you to believe that this man, who throughout has shown so much patient resignation, a man possessed of no ordinary intelligence-that this man, my client, whose demeanor you have an opportusity of witnessing at this moment-Here he raised his hand and pointed with a really splendid gesture to Fara-dean's calm and dignified face. "That this man was mad enough. fool enough, to go and meet this wo-man with the intention of murdering her, surrounded by a crowd, and murdering her not in a silent manner, but by shooting her. Do you think any man in his senses would have conceived so wildly and ridiculously foolish a plan?

"Gentlemen, I have not to establish the innocense of the prisoner at the bar. It is sufficient for him if I con-vince you that his guilt is not certain. If I can show you that there is a doubt—a doubt of the faintest or slightest shadow-his lordship will tell Indigestion?

I offer all Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar's Worth of my Remedy Free to Try.

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth free, because mine is no ordinary memedy. Ordinary remedies treat sympremedy. Ordinary remedies treat symptoms. My remedy treats the causes that produce the symptoms. Symptom treatment must be kept up forever—as long as the cause is there. My treatment may be stopped as soon as it has removed the cause, for that is always the end of trouble.

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of nerves is alling. Not the voluntary nerves that analysis. Not the voluntary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the automatic stomach nerves your mind has no control.

I have not room here to explain how hem down and causes indigestion. How misuse wears them out and causes dyspepsia. How neglect may bring on kidney, heart and other troubles through sympathy. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made well strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy I spent thirty years in personal strengthened and vitalized and made well hands feeling that a second the face with her hands feeling that edy is known. It has cured stomach troubles not once, but repeatedly—over and over again. Yet you may not have heard of it-or, hearing, may have delayed or doubted. So I make this offer to you, a stranger, that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send me no money—make me no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have not tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. The druggist will require his shelves. The druggist will require no conditions. He will accept my order she sat white as a statue, her eyes as cheerfully as though your dollar laid before him. He will send the bill to me. trouble—to be rid not only of the trouble, but of the very cause which produced it? Write today.

For a free order for a full Book 1 on Dyspepsia, dollar bottle you Book 2 on the Heart. must address Dr. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Shoop, Box 41, Book 4 for Women. Racine, Wis. Book 5 for Men. State which Book 6 on Rheumatism. book you want.

show how this woman met with her death. She may in a moment of passion and disappointment have com-mitted suicide. She may have attempt-ed to take the life of the husband who had put her from him, and in the struggle which took place the weapon sideration. No one saw that woman having found to his cost that he had die. No man can come forward and committed a folly which must mar his say that Lord Clydesfold's hand commy behalf can come forward to say truly said, would have rid themselves that she did not meet with her death from Eastern and Western Ontario their defense effectually stopping the of what had become an unbearable burden. But Lord Clydesfold, the Gentlemen, there is a doubt, and that doubt, I venture to assert, will grow into a certainty when you have heard the testimony of this man's character, which I shall now produce."

CHAPTER XXXV.

It was an extraordinary trial, and eleven goals to their opponents three, the interest and excitement increased and the green-shirted lads were not as it progressed. Of course, the judge and all the lawyers saw plainly that Mr. Edgar knew nothing of the true facts, and that he was fighting in the dark. And Olivia knew also—felt rather than knew-that Faradeane had gome here last night for the Excelsion refused to tell the story of the murder cup, Bracebridge defeated Graven-to the counsel, as he had refused to hurst ? to 5. The game was fast and tell it to everyone else.

Mr. Edgar looked round.

"I call Lord Granville," he said; and "I call Lord Granville," he said; and Bertie, who had been standing as near the box as he could possibly get, stepped again into the witness key. stepped again into the witness box.
"Now, my lord," said Mr. Edgar, boldly, "please tell us all you know of Lord Clydesfold. I ask you to reserve nothing. I have no fear of the truth." Then Lord Bertie, with an earnestness which went to the hearts of all who heard him, spoke of his long knowledge of Faradeane; how they had been at Eton together—he the younger and the weaker, Faradeane (or Lord Clydesfold), the stronger and the protector; how, all through their lives, Faradeane had proved himself the truest of friends and the most upright, honorable, and lofty-minded of men. "Such a man as my friend Lord Clydesfold is simply incapable of murder!" he wound up, and there was a buzz of applause.

"You knew nothing of this secret marriage with the gipsy?" asked Ed-

'Nothing," replied Lord Bertie. "Have you ever seen this revolver in Lord Clydesfold's possession? Bertie took it in his hand. GAL TWO-STORY practice of carrying a revolver-" "Silence!" cried the usher. "Do not address the prisoner."

smile passed over Faradeane's face as if he should say: "It is all of no use, Bertie; give it

Olivia clutched her father's arm. "You hear. The revolver is not his." The squire shook his head silently. "Look at the revolver again. You see those initials? Is it usual for Lord Clydesfold to cut his initials—the initials of his assumed name-on articles belonging to him?"
"No. I never knew him to do such

"Do you consider that those initials have been recently cut, Lord Gran-"Really, my lord," said Mr. Sewell, this is not evidence." "I shall not interfere," judge, almost grimly.

"They are recently cut," said Bertie "It never belonged to Lord Clydesfold. He wouldn't have bought a revolver of this description; a trumpery, silver-plated thing!" and he put it from him with a gesture of contempt, which made the crowd exchange glances. "You left England suddenly, Lord Granville," said Mr. Edgar; "you saw your friend Lord Clydesfold before you

"I did; a few hours before. I hav cause to remember it.' Mr. Edgar pricked up his ears,

"May I ask you what you mean?" ie said. "Will you tell us why you he said. Bertie glanced for one half second towards the pale, lovely face which to him was like a star in the eager,

"I-I left in consequence of a great disappointment" said poor Bertie, his face downcast.

"A love-disappointment?" asked Mr. Edgar, who would have spared no one in his endeaver to save the client who would not stretch out a finger to save himself. "Did Lord Clydesfold know

"He did," said Bertie, in a low voice. "He had been, as he has always been, the truest, staunchest friend through me to go abroad, who gave me the 3-year-old filly Deli sympathy and counsel of a brother. I Diana's Daughter. owe it to him that I did not give way and go to the bad-He stopped raised his eyes-they were moist-to the spot were Olivia Mr. Edgar saw the glance, and his own eyes grew keen.

"I am sorry to have to ask you the question, but I must do it. Was the these tender, tiny nerves control and lady with whom you were in love, Miss operate the stomach. How worry breaks Vanley?"

Bertie flushed, then he raised his "Now Mrs. Bradstone?" said .Mr.

Olivia covered her face with her by a remedy I spent thirty years in per-fecting—now known by druggists every-where as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I where as Dr. Shoops Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy, by removing the cause, puts a certain end to indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will and you when you write. ou write.

In more than a million homes my remin more than a million home my remin more than a million home my remin more than a million home my remin life, and I charge you answer it! Have you reason to believe that Lord Clydesfold also loved that young lady?"

Bertie started and his face went pale, then he said: "I did not think so, but-" "Go on."

"I think so now!" The crowded court swayed to and fro in its intense excitement, and looked from the pale face of the prisoner to Bertie, and then to Olivia as she sat white as a statue, her eyes dark, sad ones of the prisoner.

Mr. Edgar's brain went to work. H Will you accept this opportunity to earn at my expense absolutely, how to be rid forever of all forms of stomach to feel as if a glimmer of lieu gan to feel as if a glimmer of light were penetrating the mystery .
"Knowing that he was already married, he would not admit this to you?" he asked.

"No, a thousand times no!" said Bertie. "I have already said my friend is the soul of honor," and he halfturned to the dock

[To be Continued.]

book you want.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug.

To be Continued.]

SPRINTING.

CANADIAN WON CHAMPIONSHIP. Hamilton, March 4.— Charles Hefferon, who has just won the mile championship of South Africa, is an old South Cayuga boy. He came to this country from England when but a lad, and lived for about nine years with Joseph Fathers. He went to the Northwest, and there enlisted with the Baden-Powell police, and went to South Africa in 1901. After the war closed he remained in Bloemfontein.

To show just how Ferrozone has forty thousand drug.

SPRINTING.

At New Orleans, Crescent City Park you should at once use Ferrozone, because it contains all the elements lack-ing in weak blood. Ferrozone makes the blood rich in red cells, supplies ferrozone is a great tonic and a first-rate remedy for people who are not this country from England when but a lad, and lived for about nine years with Joseph Fathers. He went to the Baden-Powell police, and went to South Africa in 1901. After the war closed he remained in Bloemfontein.

To show just how Ferrozone has forty thousand drug.

At New Orleans, Crescent City Park yone of the quickest fights on record.

Water Curvalle Herne united worls, Kinsey, Annie Alone, City Park yone of the quickest fights on record.

IN TWO-WILE JUNIOR

At the Jubilee Rink on Saturday Fer West, Hildebrand, At Los Angeles—Meadow Horn, Sil-Junior race was skated. Eli Mustill, was the winner. The World Herne united worls, The cause of the quickest fights on record.

IN TWO-WILE JUNIOR

At the Jubilee Rink on Saturday Fer West, Hildebrand on the thorn of a chocolate-wind the two-mile worls, and in the remainstence of the quickest fights on record.

IN TWO-WILE JUNIOR

At the Jubilee Rink on Saturday Fer West, Hildebrand on the thorn of a chocolate-world the two-mile wor you that I have the right to demand PICK OF THE WESTERN TEAMS that such a doubt cannot but exist. WERE DEFEATED BY THE EAST doubtful if since coming into possession of the trophy the club has been in players, the easterners won by a score Canadians' lightning rushes. of 4 to 2.

Are Champions.

match with Quebec. The locals scored eleven goals to their opponents' three, twenty or twenty-five minutes of play.

Bracebridge, March 4. - In a hockey

Clinton, March 4.-Before 200 people Friday night, the Clinton Ladies' Hockey Club defeated the Wingham ladies in a fast and exciting game. The visitors were no match for the home ladies. The Clinton goal keeper never touched the puck the whole game. ley, Score, 2 to 0; half time, 1 to 0.

Montreal, March 5. - The Victorias the teams: defeated Westmount on Saturday night by eleven goals to five, and are, therefore, champions of the Canadian Amateur Hockey League. As a result, it is half the score stood four to nothing in favor of Victorias. The match lacked interest, as the teams were not evenly Nlagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., March 5. The second and final of the cham-CM pionship matches in the N. D. H. A. "Never. I do not believe it to be between St. Catherines and the local his. I feel sure that it is not his. team was played here last night before It is quite unlike him to carry, or ever a crowded house, and proved one of the possess a revolver. Why, you know, most exciting games of the season. At Cly," he said, turning quickly and reproachfully to the prisener, "you 9 to 3 in favor of the visiters. In the know you have always ridiculed the second hair the locals waded in and by fast and brilliant playing scored ten goals to their opponents' three, making Bertie crimsoned, and a faint, sad game at St. Catherines on Tuesday

Houghton, March 4.-The Canadian

Bracebridge, March 4.-In a game Quebec, March 4. — The Shamrocks here 'ast night for the Excelsior cup, were defeated in tonight's hockey Bracebridge hockey team defeated Gravenhurst by a score of 7 to 5. The game was fast and clean. The lineup was as follows: Bracebridge (7)-Goal, Brundrette; and McLeod.

Gravenhurst (5) - Goal, Olafson:

cardine and Lucknow, resulting 14 to had been touted up as the best in the sincerity, and he can have a bout anynorth, and they lived up to their repus.

will be enough to satisfy me of his sincerity, and he can have a bout anywhere." north, and they lived up to their repu- where.' was unable to finish. Following were:

Fenelon Falls (8) - Gould, goal; Davey, point; Burgess, cover point; Daymond, rover; Beteau, center; Boyce, right wing; Oulette, left wing. announced that they will challenge for Cobourg (9)—Patton, goal; Hopper, the Stanley cup. At the end of the first point; Turpin, cover point: Bentley, rover; McNichol, center; Payne, left wing; White, right wing.

> In a fast and very close game on I Saturday at the Jubilee rink, the Queen's Own defeated the Dufferins in Junior Juvenile Hockey League game by the score of 1 to 0. In the first half no scoring was done, and in the second Macarthur tallied the winning goal after a nice combination run with Yeates. These teams are now tied for first place in the league, and the deciding game will be played on Friday night at the Jubilee rink. The Queen's Own lined up: Goal, Morrow; point, Duffield; cover, Hodgetts; rover, Yeates; center, Mac-Hodgetts; rover, Yeates; center, Mac

Tom Phillips' bunch and cannot be ex-pected to fill the positions with the ef-fectiveness of the regular men. It is greater need of a tried seven than on this ocasion, and at the present time prospects for such are not of the brightest order. But the old reliables Score in Exhibition Game last the score was 12 to 9 for St. Catherines, and they therefore win by 24 to Was 4 to 2 - Victorias happy surprise to their friends, and it is at least to be hoped that they will do Soo hockey team was defeated in the second game with Portage Lake seven of Houghton last night. Score, 7 to 2. have seen the Rats go this season, the Toronto, March 4. — In the exhibition hockey match the All Stars, east and west, representing teams picked and west, representing teams picked locals had the advantage throughout,

The state of the state of the state of

GOTCH IS WILLING TO MEET JENKINS

If Tom Jenkins is sincere in his chalenge to wrestle Champion Frank Gotch, issued after the Cleveland man defeated Jim Parr in New York on point, Adair; cover point, Stephenson; Friday night, he can have still another ferwards, Appleton, McCargar, Prebble chance, provided he makes a bet of chance, provided he makes a bet of $1,000 on the issue. Gotch, who is at present in Ohio, sent on word from point, Ireland; cover point, Bailey; there yesterday, authorizing a reply to forwards, Lafraniere, Clendenning, Mc- Jenkins' challenge to the effect stated. "Jenkins," says Goth, "has pleaded Cobourg, March 4.-Cobourg defeated victory over Parr and his challenge Fenelon Falls here last night in the to me, he is at his best form: I cerfinals of the Trent Valley League by tainly hope he is. If he wants a match, the score of 9 to 8, in the fastest and let him bet $1,000 on the issue and that test game of the season. Fenelon Falls will be enough to satisfy me of his tation. The half-time score was 5 to 2 Gotch, who last Thursday night acin favor of Cobourg, and five minutes complished a feat unique in the annals pefore time 8 to 6 in favor of Fenelon of American wrestling - the defeat of Falls. Cobourg scored two before time Charley Witmer at Graeco-Roman, in was up, and 3 minutes' extra time had his own town - wrestled in Canton, O., to be played before Turpin scored the last night and tomorrow has a handiextra goal on a rush up the ice. Bent- cap engagement with Eddie Barr in Cobourg's star forward, was Springfield, O. He then expects to reknecked out in the second half, and turn to Buffalo, his eastern headquarters, and, after a match in Utica on March 10, will be ready for Jenkins, if he wants to gamble.

WONDERLY WINNING AT HOT SPRINGS

+++++++++++++++++++++

Otto Wonderly, the London jockey, has been doing exceptional work at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, meeting. He rode three winners on Thursday, and on Saturday he was again very successful, capturing two races, finishing second in another, and also landing a third. In one race he was beaten out for first place by the great Hildebrand, who

THE KING'S PLATE OTTAWA CLUB BANNON EXPECTS ENTRIES CLOSED TO LAND FLAG

Thirty-Six Horses, Including Will Be Minus Some of Its New Player-Manager Thinks One From the Beck Stable, Named.

Toronto, March 4.-The King's Plate down their nominations.

Mr. Heather Jock, the giant bay colt, by meet Rat Portage on Tuesday, Thurs-Derwentwater—Pee Weep, and a number of promising 3-year-olds by Derventwater and Harvey.

Mr. Dyment expects to make it three straight wins with either of the two strapping 3-year-old chestnut beauties, viz., Will King, by Cannie Boy-The Duchess, and Maid of Barrie, by Cannie Boy-Maid of Ellerslie.

Mr. Davies has several nominations of untried Kapanga 3-year-olds. Hon, Adam Beck has one entry from London, Chateau Briend, and the Kirkfield stable, whose colt War Whoop was the favorite for last year's plate this trouble. It was he who advised race, has also a single candidate, the 3-year-old filly Delias, by Wickham-

Mr. Osborne will try again with Golden Crest, who ran second in 1903, and a couple of 3-year-olds. Altogether the list is a formidable one and will keep the talent guessing until race day, which is nearly three months away.

BASEBALL.

A St. Thomas exchange says: "J. C. held at Brantford on March 21, to or-ganize a baseball league with clubs away from the game.

To fill these vacancies Shore, who has cities: London, St. Thomas, Berlin, already been tried out and made good Ingersoll, Guelph, Galt, Brantford and in pretty fast company, and Gaul, of Woodstock. The proposition is to play the Emetts of the City League, are three days a week. The local enthusiasts should get together, organize and to the core and elever stick-handlers, appoint delegates to attend the meet- but they lack the experience necessary

The Fountain Head of Life

By Keeping the "Life Current" Full of Nourishment You

Are Sure of Everlasting Good Health.

the blood, you at once supply the body letters. Read them carefully:

with renewed vigor and power to re-with renewed vigor and power to re- writes:

Best Material in Stanley Cup Contests.

Ottawa, March 4. - The Ottawa ace of 1905, which closed on Wednes- Hockey Club must defend the Stanley day of this week with the O. J. C. cup against the challenging Rat Port- ton Nationals, will this year manage, secretary, Mr. W. P. Fraser, has 36 age team on Tuesday and Thursday, captain and play with the Montreal entries, three less than last year. Just March 7 and 9, with a third game if as many owners are represented, but necessary on Saturday, the 11th, These dent Kreitner, of the Montreals, paid several of the big breeders have cut are the dates finally fixed after a con- $500 for Bannon's release from Newark, ference with the trustees at which the For instance, Mr. Seagram had eight defending club endeavored to have the entries last year, while in this year's 9th, 11th and if necessary the 13th event his representation will not be so named as the dates. Trustee Ross numerous. The pick of the lot are the would not agree to having the series 3-year-olds Rhina, a bay colt, by go over into the third week in March, Golden Badge—Bonnie Ino, and In- and suggested that the teams might ferno, a bay colt by good old Havoc, agree to play on the 9th and 11th, the out of Bon Inc, who won the plate in majority of goals to count. This was, however, not suitable to Ottawa, and Hendrie has the 4-year-old the club will bow to the inevitable and > While Rat Portage is reputed to be the strongest team yet sent out of the west in quest of the trophy, and has seemingly justified this claim by practically outclassing the best team that could be selected from the various Winnipeg clubs, all is uncertainty in the camp of the Ottawas. The unfortunate match with the Wanderers in Montreal has in ail probability robbed the club of the services for the coming series at least of Frank McGee, one of the mainstays of the team. McGee's injured wrist is still in bad shape, and unless it recovers with unexpected rapidity, it is extremely unlikely that he will be able to help to defend the trophy which he so nobly assisted in winning. McGee's absence will be a heavy blow to the efficiency of the seven. present indications it does not appear counted upon. He does not seem dethe last moment he would very prob-

"Last winter I had la grippe

Montreal Will Lead the Eastern League Boston, March 4. - "Jimmy" Bannon, one time leftfielder of the Boswhere Bannon played last year. "Kid," the sobriquet by which the Boston fans knew Bannon, has never had managerial experience, but those who know him well predict that he will be to the Eastern League what Jimmy Collins is to the American, Bannon is bright, knows the game on the field from A to Z, and will be perfectly at home in controlling the players or the field. He will instruct his players to report at Bethlehem, Pa., March 27 where they will train until April 10 after which the team will play exhibition games wherever they can be The white-haired Bannon is only 32 years old, and comes from a family of athletes. Before his profes sional career began, when he joined St. Louis in 1893, he played on a num ber of strong amateur terms. During the seasons of 1894, 1895 and 1896 he played with the Boston Nationals and was noted for his batting and baserunning qualities. He played with Kansas City and Springfield in 1897 and part of the season of 1898 with the latter team, finishing the season with Montreal, which that year won the pennant. He was with Columbus in 1903 and Newark in 1904. Bannon stated that he expected to land the pennant on the Canadian side Then to make matters worse, from this year, and that he had already beat all likely that Billy Gilmour can be He will have McManus, Toft and Gibgun to secure a championship team counted upon. He does not seem de-sirous of getting out for the series of hard games ahead and even if he were prevailed upon to get into the general of the series of pitchers, and will try and secure CANADIAN LEAGUE TALKED OF. prevailed upon to get into the game at Deering, of Beverley, and Williams, last year of the Chicago Nationals, to Ponsford is in receipt of a letter from Notty Lee, manager of the Brantford Baseball Club, who writes from Toronto, stating that a meeting will be Let ast moment he would very problem and to the Chicago Nationals, to add to the pitching force; Miller at second, James at short, and he may conclude to hold down third bag himself, the Wanderers in Montreal on Feb. 11.

Even the best of men cannot do themself, though he has Wagner, Dyer and Hartman to select from for his position; Joyce, Meany and probably Fris-for the outfield. TWO PUGS WENT DOWN AND OUT IN THE FIRST

Hot Springs, Ark., March 4. - Kid McCoy settled Jack Crawford's pugi-

Is Pure, Rich Blood! Crawfod started out with the evident intention of making short work of the Kid. but the latter was too old a ring general to be caught napping and easiback, and followed it up with a series rora, If you strengthen, vitalize and enrich helped others, we quote the following of swings and hooks which broke Nathan Strauss owned the sidefully about the face. A QUICK FIGHT, sist disease. But vitiate or deplete the blood in any way, and you sow ill-Cincinnati, O., March 4. -- One of Eugene Bezenah's haymaker swings pounds lighter than my usual weight. caught Joe Young on the jaw as they began their 15-round bout at the Riverpoverished, if your cheeks lack color, and you feel weary and unfit for work, you should at once use Ferrozone, be-

50c Lithograph Cushion Tops, Price 25c. 67 Cushion Tops, in fine lithograph designs, including Heads, Ten-colors, green, cardinal, blue, pink, cream and mixed colors, two shapes, Sale price, each

We Carry Big Line of Toilet Papers, Both Rolls and Packages. Beautiful Pillow Shams, Sale Price 25c Each.

6 dezen Fine Lawn Pillow Shams, full size, wide hemstitched border, with beautiful buttonhole-stitch pattern; also open work. Sale price, each 25c

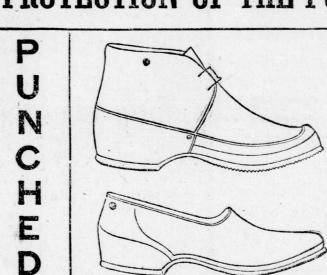

Pleated Chiffon, with Edging, Black and White, 25c Yard.

Wall Paper for Early Spring. This week we are showing an immense range of Highest-Grade Wallpaper in the latest designs and colorings, all reasonably priced.

It will pay you to visit this great department before buying Wall-

Great Sale in

FOR THE

A hole PUNCHED in a Rubber indicates that it is a

Factory Imperfect

Out of Style or in some way inferior and liable to prove unsatisfactory.

In order that these may be distinguished from perfect goods they are PUNCHED as indicated in illustration shown herewith.

Purchasers of Rubber Footwear should see that goods represented to them as perfect, and up-to-date, are Not Punched.

100

R

PUNCHED RUBBERS

THE TURF.

Toronto, March 4. - Starter William gaged by the Ontario Jockey Club to | mand the do the starting at the 13-day spring listic aspirations by knocking him out meeting, which will commence on Satin the first round of their advertised 20-jurday, May 20, with the King's Plate round contest before a big crowd at the race as the feature. Murray will also Whittington Park Athletic Club last officiate at the 6-day meeting at Hamilton, which will follow the To- in New York Yacht Club regattas,

ronto meet,

New York, March 4.-Word was reman from Tennessee, raced Robert J.

and gained for him his mark of 2:011/2. At the last Old Glory sale Strauss gave $1,000 for Robert J., simply to

SATURDAY'S WINNERS

At New Orleans, Crescent City Park

New York, March 4.-Captain Chas cent years, has been engaged to comschooner. Atlantic, which is among the entries for the Kaiser's cup race across

The Atlantic which is owned by Wilson Marshall, was completed in 1903, and has won several important races

ATHLETICS.

ATHLETE GOODMAN DEAD. Philadelphia, Pa., March 4. - Samuel ly avoided Crawford's opening rush. Crived today that Robert J., the noted McCoy then sent in a straight left to Crawford's face, which rocked his head died at the Village Farm in East Aus died at his home in Chestnut. tee of the University of Pennsylvania, died today at his home in Chestnut

