FELL FIVE FLOORS; BUMPED HIS HEAD

Get Me Out of This Areaway, Said Laughing Boy, "and I Will Be All Right."

New York, Nov. 2. - A small round bump on top of 14-year-old George Cheagan's head is all the injury he received in a fall from the roof of a five-story building, No. 1701 Third avenue, yesterday afternoon, When his parents, hearing of the accident, ran to the spot expecting to find their son dead, they found him laughing. "Just get me out this areaway and I will be all right," he said. The boy was playing hallowe'en ernment. pranks with several companions on the roof. In dodging a stocking filled flour he stepped off the roo His playmates screamed, tenants ran ing through space. The boy turned once and struck the ground feet first. George's comrades hurried to tell his parents what had happened. Some one telephoned the police and an ambulance was on the way even before Mr. and Mrs. Cheagan had time to get downstairs. When George's father looked into areaway from a cellar window he saw his son looking about in a dazed way. Upon seeing his father he laughed

REPUBLIC ON MONARCHY?

Extremes of Government Recommended to People of Norway.

Christiania, Nov. 2. - The Government today issued a proclamation recommending the people to vote at the forthcoming referendum for a monarchial form of government based on the British and Italian constitutions. The proclamation further points out that the best friends of Norway in Europe declare that the country's relations with the foreign powers can be the better secured by the retention of the monarchy. The Radicals and Socialists also issued a proclamation recommending a Republic.

Another proclamation was issued, signed by 130 prominent Liberals, asking the people under the circumstances to support the proposition of the Gov-
