STORMY WEATHER AND POOR MARKET

Hay Prices Took a Rise Today Oats Were Also Scarce.

Owing to the stormy weather and the heavy condition of the roads, this morning's market was a very small one. About ten butchers, as many farmers with small stiffs, and a quantity of oats and a dozen loads of hay, comprised the market.

Hay was picked up very quickly, the prices ranging from $10 to $11.25, according to quality, while oats were also somewhat high in the majority of cases, selling from $1.17 to $1.25.

Eggs are selling this morning from 26 to 27 cents a dozen, although they were plentiful Saturday at 25 cents. There was a good demand this morning and the prices were probably boosted on account of the scarcity.

Dressed hogs are quoted at $9 per hundredweight.
