It is the desire of the publishers of The Daily Advertiser to place these splendid books in the homes of its readers, and it is with pleasure that we announce that through special arrangements with the publishers we are able to do this at a cost scarcely exceeding the posting and boxing of the same.

Mr. McKishnie, who has found a place among the world's great writers, was born and bred in Western Ontario. These novels are authentic histories of the struggles and victories of our own ancestors, big, pulsating romances of our own people.

critics-are "Love of the Wild" and "Willow the Wisp," by Archie P. McKishnie.
