MAIL-BOX RULES. 1. Write on one side of paper only. 2. Sign name and address. 3. Inclose stamped envelope when asking for patterns, recitations, etc.

OF COURSE YOU'RE WELCOME. Dear Miss Grey,—This is my second letter to your cozy corner. Am I welcome or not? I saw on the paper where Only a Girl sent in a riddle: What relation is your mother's brother-in-law to you? Is the answer "Nothing"? I see where Buskins would like to write to someone. Please send me her address. I am 10 years old, and have blue eyes and fair hair, and am in the senior third class at school. I passed this year. I have two brothers. I guess I will have to close or Cynthia will be angry at me. I will inclose a wee mite. HIBBERT LASS.

If you will send a stamped, self-addressed envelope repeating your request, I will send you Buskins' address. You also forgot and wrote on both sides of the paper, but I will remember next time, won't you? No, the answer to the riddle was "Your uncle." I think you are getting on fine at school. Are you getting a little anxious for it to reopen, so that you can start at the new work? Thank you, Lass, for the hospital mite.

OFFERS HER HOME. Dear Miss Grey,—Have any of your readers the recipe for ginger snaps? It came in the Mail-Box three or four years ago. They were made with black pepper. I have lost the recipe. I live on a farm, and we have a nice home, but have had so many losses in different ways it has made it hard for us. If there is any old lady or gentleman that is alone and would always look after them, and give them the best of care, I would certainly do that for them. If you turn them over to me, I will take care of them as if I were a daughter, and could help me financially, so I could always keep my home. I would like to see some good pickle recipes. I have lost a dear sister since last I wrote. I was one of the Mothers, but there are so many now I don't know where I come in, so I will just sign myself signed your name and address, but trust you will send it in when you see my answer. It would be lovely for some lonesome old soul to spend the rest of life with you, so be kind and send it in your address in case it is asked for.

I will give you a recipe for ginger cookies. It is not the one you refer to, as I am on the diet, but maybe some of the older Boxites will send it along for you. What a pathetic pen name you have chosen! Here is the recipe: Mix together, in order named, one cup brown sugar, one egg, three tablespoons molasses, one teaspoon soda, in one-third cup sour milk, five tablespoons ginger, one teaspoon cinnamon, and one-half teaspoon cloves. Flour to make stiff dough. Roll thin, cut in fancy shapes and bake in quick oven.

TO HEMSTITCH SCALLOPS. Dear Miss Grey,—Isn't this lovely weather? The grain is almost all cut and cared for in part of the country, and the threshing machine whistle is heard once more. They will say she is a farmer. Yes, just so. But I enjoy nice fields and trees, all kinds of fruit and vegetables, my own cream and butter, and I like the city also. I read in the Mail-Box where you would like to relieve working core files, but I don't know if I have made this so it can be understood or not. You will think

I read in the Mail-Box where someone was asking how to do hemstitching on scallops. I have just finished a pair of pillow slips with the scallops hemstitched. I first cut a paper the size of my scallops, 4 inches across, and that made 10 scallops on a 40-inch slip. Cut the scallop. Turn a quarter-inch hem and baste. Then with sewing needle, and a large-size darning needle, start to the right-hand of sewing, with hem edge from you, thread in and sewing needle make one stitch or put it down in the goods, as though to take a stitch. Pick up about four threads and draw through. You will have ten little holes. Then with your sewing needle threaded, lay thread to your left of needle, and put your needle through the two holes made by darning needle. Then you will see that your thread is at the front of needle, then put your needle through them over the top of thread, now darning needle. Put it down through the hole that the point was fetched up at, and take up four more threads, making another hole to the left, then again sewing needle thread to left. With needle pick up the four threads or follow the darning needle, and work as in ordinary hemstitching. I then crochet an edge first, with double, then some nice pattern. I don't know if I have made this so it can be understood or not. You will think

Tea is served any time between 4:30 and 6. Usually an older married person pours tea at a table, made attractive with flowers and a dainty cloth. Younger girls assist in passing the tea cups and food, which consists of dainty sandwiches, small cakes, such as macaroons or cocoanut kisses, and different varieties of layer cake, which is served on plates, and eaten with a fork. Ice cream may also be served. I trust this is the information you wanted.

THE MOST UP-TO-DATE. Dear Miss Grey,—Well, how are you enjoying this hot weather? It sure is some hot. Will you please publish through your column the most up-to-date course of an afternoon tea? Well, I will close.

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair By Washing It. When you wash your child's hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else sold in bottles.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last everyone in the family for months. Be sure you get Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.—Advt.
