WATCH YOUR TONGUE.

If Furred and Coated, It's a Looking Glass Stomach Warning.

When it is the morning after the night before, you do not have to look at your tongue to know that the stomach is upset, the head is aching, no appetite, nerves on edge with all the sunshine of life clouded.

The real time to watch the tongue is all of the time. If it is coated with a white fur, or possibly with dark trimmings, even though the stomach does not tell you by the acute pains of indigestion that it needs help, yet the coating shows that you are getting into a bad way and that there is need of Mi-o-na.

Mi-o-na is so positive, so sure, so reliable in its curative action upon the stomach that Clark Bros., the local agents, give a guarantee of satisfaction with every 50 cent box or money back.

'ALL DONE IN BERLIN.

Another handsome electric sign adorns King street. It is interesting to know that the whole of this sign which is the latest design, was made in Berlin. The general construction was put through by Mr. J. Hainsworth, the well known plumber, while the electrical work was constructed by Mr. F. Kronberg. Mr. R. Hamilton did the painting and decorating. The public will do well to bear in mind, that they need not go out of town for an electric sign.

NEW HAMBURG.

New Hamburg, July 2.— Miss McCallum is spending her holidays in Toronto with her sister, Mrs. Hubert Hamilton, an old Hamburg resident.

Principal Roszel of the public school has handed in his resignation, to accept a similar position in Peterborough.

Mr. Wm. Kerr left for the west on Tuesday night.

WE DO WHAT WE SAY

HUMOR OF THE HOUR.

The most heartless man lives in St. Joseph. He turned up in a dentist's office the other day, The Gazette says. "I want to make an appointment for 3 o'clock," he said. "What's the matter?" asked the dentist. "It's a bad tooth with three prongs," the man replied. "I can take that out easier by giving gas," the dentist remarked, "but it will cost you $2 more. It will save much pain." The man thought for a few minutes, then remarked that he guessed gas wouldn't be necessary. "All right," the dentist replied again. "Will you be here at 3 o'clock sharp?" "Me? Oh, my, no. The appointment is for my wife."—Kansas City Star.

"Your wife's twin sister is so like her that I wonder you can tell them apart."

"Well, when I meet either of them, I kiss her. When she slaps my face I know it isn't Bertha."—Meggendorfer Blaetter.

"Can you be tructed with a secret?" he asked. The woman drew herself up proudly. "You have known me for ten years, haven't you?" she replied. "Yes." "Do you know how old I am?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Easy street is not a thoroughfare to heaven.

Go bury your sorrows; the world has its own. Smile.

Before money was invented some people were happy.

It was midnight, and the front door bell rang furiously. A head adorned with shaggy and unmanageable whiskers was thrust out of the bedroom window, and a voice that fitted the beard inquired, "What is it?"

"O, is this Mr. Higgins?" came a shrill voice from the shade of the doorway below.

"Yes."

"Please come to No. 41 High street just as quick as you can and bring your instruments."

"I ain't a doctor—I'm a carpenter. Dr. Higgins lives two doors below," and the window was coming down with a slam.

"P-ease, sir," said the little voice, "it's you we want. Pa and ma are shut up in the folding bed, and we can't get 'em out."—From the Joplin Daily Globe.

On his homeward trip by trolley a tired business man was much annoyed by the conduct of three middle-aged ladies who stood near him. They were evidently just returning from a summer tour.

All the seats in the car were occupied, but they seemed determined that he should offer one of them his seat.

He screened himself behind his paper and listened to plainly audible remarks about the decline of gallantry in the present age. This grated on his nerves, so he arose, and with a profound bow, addressed the three.

"Will the oldest of you ladies honor me by accepting my place?"

Whereupon they became interested in the advertisements over the windows and the man triumphantly resumed his seat.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

NEW GRAND TRUNK EQUIPMENT.

The Grand Trunk Railway System are now putting into service 13 new coaches of 25 that have been ordered for assignment to trains on international runs, viz., between Chicago and New York, via Niagara Falls, Chicago and Montreal, Montreal and Portland, and Toronto and Buffalo. The cars are known as first-class day coaches, and are on the standard pattern which the Grand Trunk operate on all their through trains, length of cars over all 75 feet 6 inches, weight of each car 108,620 pounds. They are mounted on six-wheel trucks, are wide vestibule with steel platforms, and are equipped with high-speed, quick-action air brakes. The inside of the cars are beautifully finished in polished mahogany, and are constructed with the Empire style of roof. Seats are Grand Trunk standard, with high backs; the car, seating sixty people, is upholstered in green plush, while the smoking room is large and roomy and upholstered in leather. All modern conveniences have been installed for the comfort of passengers. The body of the car is carpeted and the passageways and smoking room covered with linoleum.

If a want ad. fails—well, there isn't much else to suggest. But, if the task and the quest are FEASIBLE, the want ad. will not fail!

OVERWORKED ENTERTAINER BREAKS DOWN

NOW WELL

Mr. Harry Bennett, of Toronto, is an entertainer of the first order and it is little wonder, therefore, that the great demand for his services should at times tax his vocal chords to the utmost. He says: "My voice had been taxed to the utmost, and in addition contracted a severe cold which disorganized my vocal chords. The muscles of my throat were next to useless and beyond my control. You can imagine the ordeal I underwent daily in trying to sing or speak, and had I known then the value of Psychine as I do now I would have been spared the pain I had to undergo during my performances as well as the loss of voice for 3 weeks. I am never without Psychine now, for besides its soothing and healing qualities to the vocal chords it is an excellent tonic for the nerves. I heartily recommend it to all having throat and nerve troubles."

Harry A. Bennett

AS EVER

PSYCHINE (PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN) THE GREATEST OF TONICS FOR HEALTH AND ENERGY

Announcement

To Our Esteemed Patrons and the General Public.

The gratifying results attending adoption of the CASH SYSTEM in our daily CAKE delivery have decided us to extend the CASH SYSTEM to our BREAD TRADE, the same to come in force on and after the sixth of July, prox. We make this intimation frankly and plainly, so that all our customers and friends may fully understand the situation, which is simply this:

Our business has grown to such proportions that the task of account keeping and collecting has become too burdensome and expensive. A reduction of labor and cost will follow the inauguration of the cash system and enable us to give the people a better service, and even better oven products for we are at work planning greater things than heretofore in bake-house machinery, in facilities for increased output, and in additions to our working staff—in the bake shop and on the road—all of which will be to the advantage of our patrons no less than to ourselves. To effect all this "we need the money."

THE CASH SYSTEM

The "pay-as-you-go" policy is in vogue in all the large city bakeries, and it is that which accounts for their superior goods and their satisfactory catering to the public wants. Adopted by ourselves, we are sure it will come into favor among our customers, to whom we confidently look to CO-OPERATE WITH and SUPPORT US in the business-like step taken.

We would take this opportunity of cordially thanking the people of Berlin and Waterloo District for their liberal patronage of the Big Twin-City Bakery. Our trade has increased four-fold and still grows. We are trying to merit it. Come in any time and see the bakers at work. Then you'll be convinced beyond any doubt that we have the largest, best equipped and busiest bake-shop in the west, and that every process is conducted along scientific, sanitary lines, with absolute cleanliness, and with the highest skill.

Please keep this date in mind, July 6th, when the new CASH SYSTEM will be adopted.

The people's most obedient servant,

H. A. DIETRICH, PROP.

Twin-City Bakery, 86 King St. E.
