BEFORE THE BAR

Two drunks passed the bar of the courts this week, and were fined and paid as per usual.

MARRIED

At Dalhousie, June 24th, Ferguson C. Wheaton and Emily E. Hamilton, by Rev. E. J. Coleman.

PICNIC

The Salvation Army people are holding a picnic today across the river. Quite a number are taking advantage of the outing.

AT LAST

The dredge St. Lawrence, after a prolonged absence from our midst, started work at the wharf at the latter end of the week.

TWO CASES

Two cases were before the courts this week for contravention of the Liquor License Act. Convictions were obtained in both cases.

NOW IMPROVING

Mrs. Albert Dow of Shigawake, Que., who recently underwent an operation at the Hotel Dieu here, is now improving and her friends look for an early recovery.

ON HOLIDAYS

Police Officer Mann goes on his holidays tomorrow for two weeks, which he will spend visiting at Hope-town, Que.

FOR THE WEST.

Mr. Chris McRae and Mr. John Powers of Hopetown, Que. passed through here last week on their way to Toronto, where they will enter the service of the G. T. I. Railway.

RACING MATTERS

It is understood that a number of the horses who competed in the events here will go on to St. Leonard's to take part in the races there and at Van Buren.

DAMAGE BY FROST

There was quite a heavy frost in this section on Saturday night and considerable damage resulted to garden and fruit crops. At Pennlac and Nashvaak Village the damage was quite serious.—Mail.

TEN DOLLARS FOR SOMEONE

Subscribe for the Graphic during the week of July 6-11, and assist some enterprising contestant to pile up a large number of votes, and perhaps win the special $10 prize offered for that week. New subscriptions count 4,000 votes during this week.

GOOD READING

Rosenhek's adv. on pages four and five is worth reading. Look it up and share in the bargains.

IS PENSIONED

Mr. Henry Harken of the I. C. R. has been pensioned off under the age limit. Mr. Harken, who was storekeeper here, has been in the government employ on the railway for over thirty-five years.

DOG FIGHT

Last evening a number of the hard working men of the town, were interested spectators at a noisy dog fight. They were too busy to assist in separating the combatants which brought the wrath of a lady visitor down upon their heads.

MARRIAGES

At the Manse on June 26, 1914, by Rev. T. P. Drumm, B. D., George Harry Gerrard of Moffats, N. B., to Teresa Callahan, of Maple Green, N.B. On 27 June, 1914, O. Duncan Love of Campbellton, N. B., to Viola Dwyer of Shannonvale, N. B.

"WHO WILL MARRY MARY"

The series of "Who Will Marry Mary" will start at the Opera House, Friday night. Mary has $1,000,000 to spend, as patrons will remember. Now the question is, "Who Will Marry Mary." Don't miss the first part.

BUY AT HOME

The "Buy at Home" contest has only four weeks more to run. The next count will be Wednesday, July 8th. All the contestants are working hard and the knowing ones are predicting surprise when the votes are counted. Do your buying at the twelve stores in this contest, save the coupons and help your friend.

LITTLE CHANGE

As all the candidates in the Graphic Auto Contest are holding back their votes until the week of July 6-11, there is little change in the standing of contestants. Contestants should have returns of early work in next week, before Thursday morning and then enter balance of work Saturday evening.

TEN DOLLAR PRIZE

All the contestants in the Graphics Auto contest and the Automobile Contest conducted by the local merchants and the Graphic, are working hard to win the extra ten dollar prize offered for the contestants, handing in the most new subscriptions during the weeks of July 6-11. All new subscriptions count 4,000 votes for this week only.

GILLIS-MacALEESE

A very pretty wedding was witnessed by about 75 guests at "The Elms", Flatlands, on the evening of June 24, when Miss Isabella Jeanne, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gillis, was united in marriage to Dr. T. Karl MacAleese, of South Hadley, Mass. The ceremony, a double ring service, was performed by Rev. Gordon Firth. The bride was a lovely picture in her gown of soft cream charmeuse satin, and princess lace, her veil was beautifully arranged in Juliette cap effect, with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the Valley, and wore the gift of the groom, a pearl necklace. Miss Eva Gillis, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Fred MacAleese, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride on the arm of her father, entered the drawing room to the music of "The Voice that breathed O'er Eden", sung by a quartette of her friends. After the ceremony, which was performed under an artistically arranged arch of cedar ferns and carnations, and the most hearty congratulations from all, the bride and groom retired to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, which was beautifully rendered by Miss Isabella Young, a classmate of the bride. After lunch which was served from 10 to 12, Dr. and Mrs. MacAleese left for the Annapolis Valley, where they will spend a short honeymoon, visiting Dr. MacAleese's former home and friends of Mrs. MacAleese. On their return to Flatlands, they will spend a short time at the bride's former home, before leaving for South Hadley, where they will make their home. Mrs. MacAleese was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and valuable gifts and both she and Dr. MacAleese are followed by the very hearty good wishes of their many friends. Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. Flora McIver and Miss Isabelle Young from New York City, Miss Mildred Wallace from Fredericton.

CHRISTOPHER—HUNTINGTON

A very pretty, but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stokes, Shives Athol, last Tuesday evening, June 23rd, when Margaret Susan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntington, Maple Green, was united in marriage to John Goodwill Christopher. The bride, who was given away by Mr. Q. Freeman Travers, looked charming in a dress of cream satin, with bridal veil and wreath. The bride was attended by Miss Agnes Travers, who was very prettily attired in white Taffeta silk, with blue trimmings, and Mr. Oscar Larson of Port Daniel, P. Q., very ably assisted the groom. After the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. E. Purdie, the guests with the bridal party and officiating clergyman, sat down to a sumptuous repast. The many pretty presents received tends to show the popularity of the young couple. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome Ebony toilet and manicure set, with the bride's initial engraved. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Christopher a long and happy journey through life.

WHITE ENAMELED FURNITURE FINE FOR BED-ROOM

White Enamel Furniture is coming into its own as the ideal equipment for bed-room use. They're making it better now, too. Formerly when you had a white bed-room suite, you had to hire a maid to keep it white. But the new floated lacquer finish cleans easily as a piece of china.

And white enamel looks so cool, dainty, and inviting. It lends itself to such beautiful drapery treatment.

We have a fine assortment of summer Furniture and our low prices will please you.
