It is a pleasure, when afflicted with rheumatism, to cure yourself when it can be done so effectually and inexpensively, as with St. Jacob's Oil. Mrs. Ann Dougherty resides at 364 E street, South Boston. She is an elderly lady, and has been afflicted with salt rheum between her fingers for over sixteen years. She suffered terribly, and tried all kinds of remediles without obtaining any relief. She used St. without obtaining any relief. She used St.

Jacob's Oil four times, and by that time she could sleep at night, which she could not do before. She used St. Jacob's Oil again and got better and better, until now she is entirely cured. She commenced the use of St. Jacob's Oil about two months ago, and now thinks there is nothing like

A. J. Prongua and P. G. Laurie, the movements of whose "express" had afforded our citizens a pleasant topic of conversation for some time past, reached home on April 3, neither they nor their charges being any the worse for their trip. Mr. Laurie brought with him his son William, who was the winter of 1878-9 here, and two brought with him his son William, who spent the winter of 1878-9 here, and two daughters. The young ladies stood the journey well, and are, we believe, the first who have ventured to brave the discomforts of a winter trip beeween Winnipeg and Battleford. On the road between here and Carlton they met Mr. T. Struthers and his daughter Jenny, bound for Ellice; so that to this trio will belong whatever glory attaches to pioneer traveling.
