The Royal opera house was fairly filled last night to witness the Boston Ideal Uncle Tom's Cabin company. There will be a matinee this afternoon at the following very low rates: 25 cents to all parts of the house, and 15 cents for children.

At the annual meeting of D company Q. R. held last night at the army, a pleasing feature of the evening was a presentation to Sgt. McKel by his comrades of a silver-helmed baton as a token of the appreciation of his untiring zeal in the company's interests.

Byron and Ryan furniture dealers at the corner of Vanauy and Queen streets, yesterday handed Peter Fisher over to the police of No. 2 station on a charge of stealing a wall pocket from their store. Fisher had also about two yards of velvet which he could not account for.

Harry Hart, a young man employed as a waiter at the Toronto club, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Burrows on a charge of minor embezzlements from guests of the club. It is said that Hart took pay for refreshments from guests and afterwards had them charged on the books. The amounts said to be small.

The law society has appealed against the assessment of their Ogoude hall property for the construction of the cedar-block pavement on the section of Queen street between Yonge and Simcoe. Their share of the assessment is $1612, and they claim total exemption.

An emergency meeting of the West Presbyterian Young People's association was held last night to consider the action taken by the section in removing the piano. The pastor and chairman of the session were present to represent the church. After a lively discussion the chairman of the session, Mr. Miller, agreed to return the piano.

In the police court yesterday Wm. Conroy had to pay $10 and costs or 30 days for committing an assault on Mrs. G. Nash. John Lawson, a bell-boy at the American hotel, was charged with stealing a couple of boxes of cigars from John Mackie, proprietor. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 60 days. Mary Keough was discharged of the charge of stealing a purse from Mary Healy of Lombard street. Andrew Crow was charged with assaulting his wife Lizzie. She was dismissed with costs. Jesse Carley was up on remand, charged with embezzling several sums of money from the city corporation. Mr. Murphy for the prisoner, pleaded very strongly, and claimed that no case had been made out, but the magistrate thought differently. Ex-Atty Taylor, Aid Crocker and Aid Evans were in the court. The magistrate sentenced him to four months in the central prison. John Cochrane for putting salt on the Toronto street railway was fined $1 and costs or 30 days. John Smith, an old pensioner, will be cared for by the jail hands for the next eight days.

Poultry Thieves at Work.
William Crocker of De Grassi street, Riverside, is the owner of some valuable imported fowls. About 2.45 on Tuesday morning he was awakened with the noise some parties made in endeavoring to force an entrance into his henery. Fancying that all was not well he proceeded to the henery with gun in hand. In the dim light he perceived the forms of two men, at whom he aimed. The intruders, who had truder the cap held fire and did not ignite the charge, and on his return to the scene had disappeared.

An Incident of the Opera.
During the third act of the opera (King for a Day) at the Grand opera house last night a number of skulls which were standing against a wall as part of the effects of a fighting man tumbled over and greatly startled the soprano costume Zeldie (Miss Lizzie Armande), who for a few seconds failed to cease singing. Zeldie evidently thought that the top of the skull had been cast in, and she falling "props" made such a noise. The audience smiled sympathetically and the incident was soon forgotten amid the gay strains of the opera.

THE TRIUMPHS OF TRAFFIC.

A Jubilee Meeting of the Upper Canada Society-Election of Officers.

A jubilee meeting of the Upper Canada Tract society was held last night at the Central Presbyterian church in St. Vincent street. A large audience assembled in honor of the occasion, comprising prominent members of the various churches and fraternal associations of the city. The chair was filled by Rev. Wm. Milligan, seconding the resolution Rev. Mr. Milligan delivered an earnest address on the general advantages of the tract system.

Rev. High Johnston expressed gratitude for divine blessings toward the cause and resolving on more vigorous sympathy with the various operations of the society. He summarized the general progress of tract distribution throughout the world and spoke of the necessity of an energetic prosecution of the good work. Rev. Mr. Potts also spoke in a similar strain.

Another resolution, recording the sense of the need of the Holy Spirit's influence in the operations of the society, was moved by Rev. B. B. Thomas, D.D., who expressed heartfelt sympathy with the cause. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Potts.

Before the meeting adjourned a number of thanks was tendered to the Rev. P. McF. McLeod and the managers of the church for the use of the building, and to the choir for their efficient services.

$30,000 FOR TWO HUMAN LIVES.

The Grand Trunk Railway the Defendants in the Case.

Six orphans weeping in the court of justice yesterday afternoon, when motion picture of their dead father and mother was made by the lawyers on their behalf, in opening a case to compel the Grand Trunk Railway company to pay $30,000 for their parents' lives. On the night of December 29, 1931, George Valentine and his wife Anne of the township of Pickering, were killed by a Grand Trunk engine which was moving under first) at the Kingston road crossing. They were on their way to the city with farm produce. The case will still be reviewed in the city, as long as inquest was held at the time and much interest was centred in the sad calamity. The recent suit is brought by administrators of the late man's estate, on behalf of the six orphans, whose ages range from 12 to 20. They are the boys and three girls, and were much affected by the death of their parents. The amount claimed by plain-tiff is $30,000, who is represented by Mr. James P. H. Jones, who has conducted the case as there are over twenty witnesses, including, and only three or four had given evidence when the court last evening. The plain-tiff's lawyers will endeavor to prove that the locomotive which killed the Valentines was moving at a greater rate than the limit set by law, and that the limit was allowed by law within the limit of village, town or city. The case is one of considerable interest.

GOING TO TAKE POSSESSION.

The Probability of an Armed Provincial Force Being Sent to the Disputed Territory.

Louyer to a World reporter, said a well-known lawyer to the Ontario authorities raising a provincial force and sending it up to the territory now in dispute between the dominion and the province. If Mr. Louyer makes a big sweep in the elections, very near, depend upon it he will be forced to claim and hold the territory. Quite a number of persons have already volunteered their services in an expedition to take possession. Sir John Macdonald's course will in a great measure depend on the Ontario elections and on the Manitoba elections. If both these go against him then he will hardly dare to do it. The disputed territory is a strip of land in Ontario which is claimed by the province of Manitoba. It is ex-claimant, to a stupent spread at Hughes' restaurant, Lander lane and King streets. Rev. James Hughes, master of the lodge, occupied the place for a few days there were about seventy-five members present.

MAKING THE FUR FLY.

Reasonable Estimates Bring a Good Trade to a Young Store House.

Mr. Tonkin, the well-known hatter of 110 Yonge street, has been making the fur fly ever since the present cold snap has set in. What is meant by this remark in this particular case is that he has been disposing of large quantities of furs at low prices. In this great age of progress the people who sell the cheapest always do the largest business. When one goes to the fur store and the prices asked are reasonable, there will be the crowds flock to purchase. This is applicable to all business, being also true of our own. The cheapest newspapers have the largest circulations and are the favorite past excellelence with the people. Providence has put upon this earth a variety of fur-bearing animals, without whose coverings we would often find it difficult to keep out the rigors of our Canadian winters, as the durability, warmth and scariness of the products of these animals regulate their market value, which sometimes very high, it is a cheering thing to know that at one place at least there can be bought at favorable prices. That place is at Tonkin's, 110 Yonge street, a visit to which will establish the correctness of this statement. Do not allow your wife, your sister, your daughter, or yourself to go to a fur store without you buy all or any of them at barely living rates at Tonkin's.
