Mr. Hendrie's horses: Checker Playing at Pittsburg. Printsburg, Pa., Sopt. 21-Reed's mishap on Monday, by which he gave himself an uphill match to play, led to an interesting contest yesterday. From the start Reed formed the openings, a different one in each game, but secured no position which Barker was mable to draw. At the afternoon sitting Reed prevented Barker's favorite, the Glasgow, by playing 22, 18 at the second move, forming the single corner. Then, having the first side in the following game, he played the Bristol, which was drawn, and play was adjourned until 70 clock. In the evening Reed forced the work, but both the games, ac cross sind a. Whel-ler were drawn. Total score: Baker 1, Reed 0; drawn 7, with 42 games yet to play.
