Drummond & Brown received the following to-day over their private wire from Lamontagne, Clarke & Co. of New York: Market opened weak and lower and declined at least ½c at once. The foreign situation was bad again and this, in addition to the firmness in exchange rates and the exportation of one million gold checked any tendency to rally the market showed. The Cammack following covered freely in U.P. & L.N., but London and long holders supplied the stocks, so that the heavy buying had no effect. The only bright spot in the outlook was the crop reports, the heavy rains of last week having helped the condition 20 per cent. We don't see how the conditions of the crops here and abroad can fail to tell in the end and bring us prosperity and higher values, but at the moment the troubles abroad, coupled with the continued drain of gold, has so dampened the courage of the buils that the snap is all out of the market. There was a slight reaction towards close, caused by the covering of shorts. We doubt if there will be covering of shorts.
