Anglicanism At Parkdals The annual report of St. Mark's, Parkdale, The annual report of St. Mark's, Parkdate, states that a year ago an appeal was made to the congregation for $1000 towards the mortgage debt resting upon the property.

The response to that appeal was $262.53, of the property of the prope which $11.15 was paid out for expenses connected with the appeal, and $200 was paid off the mortgage debt in June last, reducing it to $3400, and a balance of $51.38 still OLD CHUM off the mortgage debt in June last, reducremains in the Standard Bank. The church war ens have been able to effect easier war ens have been able to effect easier terms with the mortgagors, and the rate of inverest from Dec. 1 ult. has been reduced from 6% to 6 per cent. The rector, Rev. Charles L. Ingles, now appeals to the congregation for further offerings on behalf of the mortgage debt of the church. The 11th anniversary of the opening of the church will be celebrated to-morrow. Special sermons will be preached by Rev. F. D. Woodcock of Camden East, in the morning and evening. Mr. Woodcock will also hold a children's service in the afternoon.

Their Anniversary Social. The first anniversary of the induction of the Rev. J. A. Turnbull, B.A., LL.B., into the pastorate of West Presbyterian Church was celebrated by a social. The large lecture room of the church was crowded with an enthusiastic audience. During the earan enthusiastic audience. During the earlier part of the evening Dr. Turnbull presided, and in the course of his remarks gave prominence to the cordial relationship existing between the members and adherents of the congregation and himself. The Rev. Robert Wallace, the previous pastor, was present, and delivered one of his old-time stirring addresses. Mr. James Watt was then called to the chair; and congratulatory speeches by Ald. William Carlyle, Mr. David Millar and Mr. Robert S. Gourlay followed. Miss Macgregor and Mr. Dickson contributed solos, and the choir rendered some choice anthems and quartets. The ladies dispensed a bountiful supply of refreshments during the evening.

Culloden Cullings.

GENTLEMEN,—In 1888 I was severely afflicted with gravel of the Edneys, from which I surfered great pain. I was recommended to take Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, finding great relief, and after taking 4 bottles can truly say I am cured and have not since been troubled. I highly recommend it.

Royal Society's Meeting in Toronto. At the last annual meeting of the Royal Society, held in Montreal, an invitation to meet in Toronto was extended by Mr. John Blevins, acting for the city. This invitaç tion the society has accepted, and a meeting of the committee empowered to make all necessary arrangements for the event was held in Col. Denison's office. The following are the names of those who form the committee: Dr. Bourinot, Col. Denison, Sir Daniel Wilson, Profs. Turnkey Spanton's salary was reduced $27.50 a year some time ago. On motion of Ald. Stewart it was increased that amount. A communication from the city's solicitor was read informing the board that the rents for St. Andrew's market would expire shortly.

A motion of Ald. Stewart's, that hucksters renting outside stalls in St. Lawrence Market be allowed to sell butter, eggs and fowl at certain seasons of the year, was lost.

City Commissioner's Estimates.

Commissioner Coatsworth presented the estimates of his department for 1892. The total amount asked for is $112,669; by deducting the $9890 for running the crematory and $500 for dog impounding, two items that were not in last year's estimates, there is an actual reduction of $6642.

Following is the summary of the estimates.
