Chester Carriage Builders at Law.

The case of H. Mudford vs. H. Plaskett was heard before Mr. H. R. Frankland, J.P., at Chester, on Tuesday evening. Mr. A. F. Lobb off Lobb & Baird defending. Both men are carriage builders. Last autumn Mudford bought out Plaskett, but in the following Meirch sold back the Chester business to him. Plaskett paffi all except $3 and took the stuff away, whereupon Mudford issued a search warrant. Under examination plaintiff admitted the sale, but claimed that the goods were not to be delivered until full payment was made. The defendant was committed for trial. was made. The mitted for trial.

Edward Thistle, 20, of Flynn's Corners, was brought before Magistrates Ellis and Badgerow, at Eglinton, on Tuesday evening, charged by Mr. Valdier with having used threatening language. He was fined $2 and costs for this, the Magistrates coupling with it a rebuke for threatening violence to a man of over 60 years of age.

J. L'Estage also paid a $5 bill into court for letting two terriers of his kill a number of Mrs. Petrie's Fancy Silk Ribbons, 3 in, and 5 in, wide, Friday 12½c yard, regular price 25c. fowls.

Water pipes are being laid for 1000 feet along the north side of Roehamp-

Serious Fighting. London, Oct. 9.—A despatch from Trebizond to a news agency says: "Ser-jous conflicts took place here yester-day between Turks and Armenians, in which many of the latter were killed.'

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief, and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.
