BROOKE

Service in St. James' church will be at three p.m., next Sunday, Nov. 1st.

"The Young Country School Ma'am," a play full of fun and containing good moral will be given on Nov. 6th, in the 6th line Bethesda United Church, Brooke, by the Bethesda Dramatic Club. Good orchestra between acts. Admission 35c and 25c. Concert begins at eight p.m. sharp.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in Chalmers church on Sunday forenoon. This service will be the closing one in Rev. Mr. Mackintosh's ministry, before he leaves to take over the charge of Burns church, Milverton.

The Rally Day service at Bethesda United church last Sunday, Oct. 18th proved to be a decided success in spite of the inclement weather. Thirteen young ladies took the several parts in costume, three representing Canadian C.G.I.T. girls and the others representing the lands in which the United church is carrying on Missions. The pageant represented the problem of the races. Peace exhorted the young Canadians to demonstrate a better way of putting an end to the differences than by the sword. A good-sized audience took part in the singing and worship and everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy the Rally exercises.

Next Sunday, Nov. 1st, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in Bethesda at 11 o'clock, and at Walnut at 2:30. Salem people are cordially invited to join in either morning or afternoon service. No service at Salem in evening.

After a ling. Roche, a pioneer in Watford, Ont. at his home, 30 Park by var 10- ronto.

Mr. Roche was the 800-mile Wick, Ont., August 16th, to England for many years' carriage in a sperry business in Watford. In the eighties, he was one of Ontario's outstanding rifle shots, having won numerous prizes as a marksman. He was one of the six brothers that belonged to the famous Watford fire hose team. For eleven years he was chief of the Fire Department and during his rule brought the department to a high degree of efficiency.

Owing to poor health, five years ago, he gave up business and moved to Toronto with his family. Since then his health gradually failed, until death claimed him. He was one whose history today leaves here in Watford and in Toronto, an example of an ideal citizen and a perfect Christian.

Besides his wife, formerly Mary A. O'Meara, London, Ont., there are left to mourn his loss four sons, Jno. C. Toronto; Fred J., Vancouver; C. P. Montreal; and Dr. Norbert J., Chicago; four daughters, Mrs. Edith Langan at home; Sister Mary Margaret, St. Michael's Hospital, Miss Loretta at home and Mrs. O. P. Sullivan, Toronto. Also five brothers, Thomas, Watford; Michael, Forest, John, Stratford; Charles, Pt. Huron; and William, London; and one sister, Mrs. Emma O'Meara, Detroit.

On Friday morning, Oct. 23rd, the funeral took place from his late home to St. Vincent de Paul church, where many friends paid their last respects to one they loved. Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Ryan, with Rev. Father Culliton as deacon, and Rev. Father Smith, sub-deacon, Rev. Father C. James was present in the Sanctuary.

The pallbearers were his four brothers, Thomas, Michael, John and Charles; and Frank Hillis and Sam Mitchell of Toronto.

Interment was made in Mount Hope cemetery, Toronto. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of the late David Roche, Toronto, were Charles M. Roche, Montreal; Dr. Norbert J. Roche, Chicago; Mrs. Emma O'Meara and son Michael, Detroit; Thomas Roche, Watford; Michael Roche, Forest; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roche, of Port Huron; John Roche and son, Murray, Stratford; Mrs. A. McDonald, Wingham; Mrs. F. Hubbard, Forest; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. O'Meara, Lewistown, Pa.; James and Daniel McIntyre, London; Charles McManus, Sarnia; and Dr. J. McGillicuddy, Watford.

The Detroit river bridge, as now being planned will be the longest suspension bridge in the world. The proposed bridge is of the suspension type, with a span of 1,850 feet below the harbor piers. A clearance of 110 feet is sufficient to permit the passage of any boat which can navigate the Great Lakes. A 47-foot roadway will accommodate five lines of traffic.

Rev. W. Mackintosh, in London account. Miss Colleena, this weekend visiting. The monthly meeting of the society.

Crushed stone is being placed on Alvinston's main street, to cover the rough surface resulting from a hard season's wear. Five years in Kingston penitentiary was the sentence meted out to the three young Toronto women, Isobel Prouse, Bessie Carroll and Jennie McMinn on a charge of murder. This is the case in which the three girls, inmates of the women's jail farm, bound and gagged the night matron, Margaret Mick, and made their escape the night of May 24th last. Miss Mick was found dead the following morning having been strangled to death.

on Wednesday, the youngest daughter, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle, London Road, P. ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Stonescians for Calvary Baptist church. who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory tulle with lace trimmings. Her veil of tulle was caught in place with orange blossoms. She carried a show-er bouquet of Sunset roses and maiden hair fern. Her only ornament was a white wedding bell. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Russell Johnson, sister of the bride. During the signing of the register Miss Ethel Hoyle, sister of the groom, sang very effectively "Until." The groom's gift to the bride was a gold brooch, and to the bride a ring. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room which was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells; white asters, fern and rosebuds were used for table flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle left, amid showers of confetti and best wishes, on a motor trip to Detroit and points west. The bride's travelling dress was of Poca blue flat crepe with grey trimming, and with hat and shoes to match. She wore a smart French model coat of flannel cloth with grey squirrel trimming. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, London road, and will be at home to their friends after December first.
