AMERICAN GENEROSITY

Baltimore Sun: This country is rich. It will make relatively little difference to us whether France meets her obligations in full, in part, or not at all. France, like all our foreign debtors, is poor. An increase in the strain on her resources may do her shaky financial structure lasting injury. And this important reality in the situation our Government has recognized in committing itself to the doctrine that the debtor's capacity for payment must be a guiding principle in any settlement.

JAPAN'S SOCIAL PROBLEM

Capt. M. D. Kennedy in the Nineteenth Century Review (London):—The more Japan becomes industrialized the less will agricultural pursuits be what Robertson Scott calls "the foundations of Japan." Industrialism is, therefore, striking at the very roots of Japanese social life. Little wonder, then, that the spirit of unrest and discontent is on the increase. This transition is, in its psychological aspect, similar to a revolution—political, religious or social—that has not been accompanied by a good deal of disturbance. Japan can hardly expect to prove an exception to this rule, though she can take—and is taking—steps to keep the situation under control.

THE DISEASE AND THE SYMPTOMS

London New Statesman: In too many cases they (those who lament most loudly the plight of British industry) are still taking to themselves a poor comfort by putting the blame on the "agitator," and trying to believe that, if only the Trade Unions would be "good boys" it might yet be well. What they fail to understand is that the "agitator" or at least the success of his agitation, is purely a product of the situation. It is not because "agitators" are plentiful that trade is bad; it is because trade is bad that "agitators" get a good audience, and the "Left Wing" is dominant in the Trades Union Congress. To attempt to put things right by removing "agitators" is like trying to cure the small-pox by cutting off the spots.

CONTROL OF THE NILE

T. R. Barron in the Nineteenth Century: Within the period of a generation one of the longest rivers in the world, from its headwaters to the sea, should be completely harnessed to the service of man. Regulated, controlled, and disciplined, the achievement will be unsurpassed by any engineering feat, ancient or modern. How is the safety of these great works to be ensured? Egypt demands the evacuation of the Sudan by Great Britain, and the creation of a semi-independent State under her own direction. She demands that the water requirements of the Sudan, and thus its entire development, should be subordinated to her own needs. Great Britain offers Egypt a defensive alliance, a partnership in the administration of the Sudan, and the placing of the control of the Nile in the hands of a neutral and international body. In the opinion of the many thousands of foreigners living in Egypt, who are in a position to form an unprejudiced judgment, England's offer is generous in the extreme.

EGGS OF TODAY AND YESTERDAY

Every householder must recognize the value of the grading of eggs. While in bygone times a certain percentage of every dozen bought for family consumption would probably be a bit tainted or stale, the housewife of today can know exactly what she is buying, whether special, extra, firsts or seconds. An eight-page pamphlet just issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture that can be had freely for asking from the Publications Branch, Ottawa, goes into the value of eggs for food, tells what is being done to ensure their purity, gives particulars of the different grades and furnishes receipts of various uses to which eggs can be put. It also contains interesting facts of which the following are a few:

The wise customer in buying will insist on graded eggs.

Eggs are the breakfast food of the nation and have great food value.

Eggs contain all the necessary elements for the growth and proper development of the young and the replacing of waste tissues in the adult.

Eggs being a perishable product care should be taken in their keeping.

Keep eggs in a cool, dry place and away from anything smelly, such as fish, onions, cheese or kerosene.

There are no substitutes for eggs. Eggs enrich the blood and keep it in proper solution.

Eggs are invaluable and indispensable in health and in sickness.

The absence of eggs in the diet is harmful.

Mothers should consider how much eggs foster the growth and development of their offspring.

An egg, at least, a day is a practical necessity. Two or more are better.

CENTRAL CLARENCE

Mrs. Sable Mcintosh spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jackson. Mr. H. D. Woodbury of Kingston was also a visitor at the same home.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sproule on losing their home by fire on Wednesday last. A good many of their household effects were saved. The house burned so rapidly a great many things were destroyed in spite of the fact that a crowd was on the scene to do what they could. The family are now occupying the house quite recently purchased by Mr. Sproule from Edwin Whitman.

Raymond Marshall of Ayleford, Marion Smith of Kingston, and Mrs. Herman Forster of Nictaux Falls, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Marshall for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Kenneth Marshall spent a couple of days last week at Karsdale with his friend, Edgar Covert.

Howard Starratt returned to Lynn, Mass. on Friday last, after spending several weeks with his mother, Mrs. H. D. Starratt.

Carmen Marshall, of the Royal Bank, Lawrencetown, spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

DIPHTHERIA IN THE VALLEY

Some of the Valley communities find themselves threatened with diphtheria, a number of cases having developed of late in such a way as to indicate wide spread infection. The type of the disease is mild. Up to the present there has been little or no loss of life. Indeed the very mildness of the attack has contributed very largely to the difficulty of recognition. This has moreover led many persons—acquainted only with severer types, where deaths were frequent—to believe that the epidemic was nothing more severe than one of "common colds." Occasional severer cases, followed by paralysis, or in which fatal termination were averted only by the administration of antitoxin in large doses, have indicated the true nature of the outbreak beyond a possibility of doubt.

The Local Boards of Health, under the direction of the Medical Health Officer, are now making determined efforts to limit the spread of the disease, though they are hampered in their task by the fact that the outbreak has already assumed such a wide spread proportion before the nature of the epidemic was recognized.

In their efforts to relieve the situation they are meeting with the wholehearted support of the communities. This is of the highest importance and promises well for early control.

The Boards are endeavoring to secure the safety of the public with as little inconvenience or as little dislocation of business as is consistent with safety. Without a doubt some inconvenience will be experienced, but the measures being taken ensure that the inconvenience will be the minimum amount, which it is called upon for the individual or the community to undergo, and which, at the same time, necessary for community protection.

By wholeheartedly supporting the Local Boards of Health, the communities will greatly assist them in their important, though sometimes thankless, duty. Department of the Public Health, Halifax, N.S. November 5th, 1925.

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it will do you good and will save those doctor's bills. So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have told them about it. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. This is a remarkable proof of its merit. C.

A new high-water mark for the 1925 season of navigation in regard to number of passengers landed at Quebec over a week-end, was established during the week-end of September 28th when six boats docked with 18,000 passengers. A memorial known as "The Altar of Peace" has recently been unveiled in Stanley Park, Vancouver, to symbolize the spirit of international goodwill existing between the United States and Canada. The memorial was raised by joint subscription of United States and Canadian Kiwanis Clubs, and stands on the spot where the late President Harding delivered the last speech of his life while visiting Canada, in July, 1923.

One of the largest shipments of live foxes for export ever to leave Prince Edward Island, left recently for New York for transshipment to Norway. The shipment comprised 230 foxes in all, with a gross value of $40,000. Several small shipments of animals were consigned to Norway last year and this large order has followed the success which the Norwegian breeders have had with those animals previously sent from this country.

As illustrating the volume of grain delivered by the Port of Montreal compared with that of Vancouver, figures given by the Pacific coast port for the crop year ending July 31 last, show Montreal deliveries were six and three-quarters times those from the British Columbia port. Vancouver shipped 25,133,218 bushels of grain for the crop year ending July 31, while Montreal, during this period, disposed of 169,929,018 bushels.

A WHOLESOME BAKED DINNER
Most housewives do not realize that oven dishes require really less attention than those prepared on top of the stove. But those who are fortunate enough to have a self-heating enameled ware roaster, know from experience that this is a fact. The old-fashioned way of basting the meat every ten minutes or so did keep one almost constantly on the job if the meat was to be well-flavored and browned.

The enameled ware roaster, which not only roasts but bastes as well, has eliminated all the attention and thought that the old method involved. Roasts are said to be much better for one than fried foods and an additional advantage is that potatoes and vegetables can be roasted with the meat, which saves considerable time. White and Bermuda onions are on the market now and for a change from the usual boiled and creamed style of preparing them, try roasting them with the beef and potatoes.

Select a six-pound roast, wipe with a damp cloth, sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour and cook in a very hot oven for twenty minutes. Then place around the meat six or eight large peeled potatoes and the same number of medium sized onions, cover and cook at the same temperature for forty-five minutes.

New York.—Compulsory voting will be introduced for the first time at the Australian general elections Nov. 15th, the Commissioner for Australia, Sir James Elder, was advised yesterday. For the last ten years compulsory voting has been enforced in the state of Queensland, but this is the first time for it to be applied to Federal politics.
Under the new law, registrars prepare lists of those entitled to vote and any elector who fails to go to the polls, without giving a valid reason, will be liable to fine.
