

To J. H. B. and E. W. R.

*When I was very young and small,
You held me in your arms;
Before that I could walk at all,
I learned your gentlest charms.*

*When I was just a little chap,
And could n't say a thing,
You used to take me in your lap
And talk to me and sing.*