Clarkon, Kettleby; 1/2 dozen ewe lambs, Southdowns, to Mr. David White, Kettleby, and 1 pair ewes, all at paying prices. Also since sale sold 8 Southdowns at good prices, and one aged bull to Mr. John Vannostm, Whichurch. We sold all our bulls except 5th Fordham Duke, our old stock bull, yet for sale, along with two or three good cows. Our sale day, Feb. 18th, was very cold, several degrees below zero. Several hundred people were in attendance, but the cold was so severe that they could not stand out long. I have also purchased at the Toronto sale held on Feb. 25th, the young bull Crim-Lavender, got by imported Duke of Lavender—2005—, I see by your notes on Mr. A. Johnston's herd in March JOURNAL you call him "a grand, big, short-legged calf, dropped Feb. 17, 1884," and that is just what he is. He is a son of Crimson Flower of Greenwood, by Crown Prince of Athelstane and—3584—. He brought down the scales at 1,005 lbs. good weight on reaching Aurora after a tiresome journey. Has grown splendid since arriving at Oakland, and I shall be very disappointed if we don't get something good from him. Our Shorthorns yet at Oakland number 19 head (including 4 young bull calves), after disposing of 20 head at sale, with more calves yet to come.

Yours truly,

S. HEACOCK.

Oakland Farm, Kettleby.

The Mayfield herd of Shorthorns, the property of the late Jos. S. Thompson, were sold by auction at the farm near Whitby, on Wednesday 18th Feb., by the successful auctioneer, L. Fairbanks. The herd consisted mostly of well-known families of Scotch cattle, and quite a number of them were imported from the herds of Mr. S. Campbell, of Kinellar; Mr. Bruce, of Heatherwick; Lord Polworth, of Mertoun House, St. Boswells and others. The bull at the head of the herd was Scotch Rose (50419), bred by His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch, Dalkeith Park, Dalkeith, Scotland, and imported by the late Mr. Thompson, who was one of our most enterprising importers a number of years ago, but has been less of late owing to bad health. He brought out a great many very valuable animals that stood high in show-ring honors both in Scotland and in this country. Amongst them, Golden Drop and Lady Cecil, winner of first at Highland Society's show at Perth in 1871 as a yearling, besides other honors at Provincial and local shows. The following prices were realized: Rosebud 2nd, by Royal Duke (35356), Mr. A. Johnston, Greenwood, $195; Rosebud 3rd, by Royal Cecil—1774—, dam Rosebud 2nd, by Royal Duke (35356), Mr. R. R. Sangster, Lancaster, $240; Mellerstain, imported, by Sir Richard (44047), dam Melrose, by Rapid Rhone (35205), Mr. Geo. Thompson, Alton, $400; Laurustine 3rd, by Baron Berkley (36158), Mr. R. R. Sangster, Lancaster, $125; Laurustine 5th, by Statesman (45659), dam Dottie, by Socrates (39144), Mr. R. R. Sangster, Lancaster, $380; Red Lady, by Red Comet—883—, Mr. John Foley, Greenbank, $275; Crimson, by Scarlet Velvet—548—, Mr. W. Coe, Madoc, $190.
