

Catholic children. Since 1846, three thousand five hundred pupils have been educated in Pointe-aux-Trembles School. He also spoke of the work carried on at Grande Ligne and Sabrevois. In many instances the Roman Catholic clergy have manifested a great deal of opposition. The meeting was closed in the usual manner.

* * *

A special meeting of the Society was held on Monday, Jan. 20th, to consider our work for the coming summer. It was decided that it should be of the same nature as that attempted by us last year, with special attention to French work. A committee was appointed to take up subscriptions among the students for carrying on this work.

* * *

On Tuesday afternoon, November 20th, Mr. Stock, of the Church Missionary Society, addressed the theological students of the various colleges in the Convocation Hall. Rev. Principal MacVicar presided, and introduced the speaker, who gave an interesting and most instructive address.

PHILOSOPHICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.

This Society held its regular meeting on November 29th. Mr. J. S. Gordon, B. A., presided. Arrangements were made to hold the annual debate with Knox College about the end of January. The debate of the evening excited considerable interest, and was participated in by Messrs. W. C. Knowles, H. D. Leitch, H. Young, B. A., and J. L. Jonston. A feature of the debate was the excellence of the speeches delivered by a number of the new men. We hope to hear from them often in future.

* * *

At a special meeting of this Society held on the evening of Dec. 6th, the new constitution was submitted for approval by the committee in charge of revision. The changes were carefully discussed and the amended form finally adopted.

* * *

The president called another special meeting of the Society on Jan. 11th, to settle matters connected with the Intercollegiate debate, to be held on the 31st of January. A special committee was appointed to look after all proceedings relating to the debate. Messrs. J. S. Gordon, W. M. Townsend, P. A. Walker, MacGerrigle, Sadler and Wallace were chosen for this purpose.

* * *

A regular meeting of this Society was held on Jan. 24th. After the business of the meeting was taken up and considered, Messrs. Young and MacCallum gave a much appreciated violin duet. Mr. Weir was appointed