

A telegram, dated Madrid, Nov. 10, says: "The statement made by several foreign newspapers that M. Bazaine intended to offer his services in a military capacity to the Spanish Government is entirely without foundation. He is expected to arrive here next Thursday, and will reside in Madrid as a private individual."

The Army and Navy Gazette recommends staff officers, etc., to look out for the Stadimetre Geographique described in our French contemporary, which gives, by a simple reading, the length of any line, straight, curved or broken, on maps and plans of every description of scale.

---$20---

WILL BUY A

FIRST MORTGAGE PREMIUM BOND OF THE
N. Y. Industrial Exhibition Co.

These Bonds are issued for the purpose of raising funds for the erection of a building in the City of New York, to be used for a

Perpetual World's Fair,

A permanent home, where every manufacturer can exhibit and sell his goods, and every patentee can show his invention; a centre of industry which will prove a vast benefit to the whole country.

For this purpose the Legislature of the State of New York has granted a charter to a number of our most wealthy and respectable merchants, and these gentlemen have purchased no less than eight blocks of the most valuable land in the City of New York. The building to be erected will be seven stories high (57 feet in height) surrounded by a magnificent dome, and will cover a space of 22 acres. It will be constructed of Iron, Brick and Glass, and made fire-proof. The bonds which are all for $20 each, are secured by a first mortgage on the land and building, and for the purpose of making them popular, the directors have decided to have quarterly drawings of $150,000 each; this money being the interest on the amount of the whole loan.

Every bondholder must receive at least $21.00, but he may receive $100,000:

Or $33,000, or $10,000, or $7,000, or $3,000, &c., &c.

EVERY BOND

purchased before January 4th, 1873, will participate in the

THIRD SERIES DRAWING,

Held MONDAY, JANUARY 4th, 1873.

Capital Premium $100,000.

These Drawings take place every THREE MONTHS, and EVERY BOND will participate in them.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

PROSPECTUS OF

A New Independent Health Monthly.

The object of it is, to teach the people all that pertains to the preservation of Health, the prevention of Diseases, and how to live in order to develop normally in body and mind.

It is not a Medical Journal, but PHYSIOLOGICAL and HYGIENIC, a family magazine, containing just that practical information on the laws of Life and Health, useful to every member of the household, and cannot but be worth many times its price to every family in which it is read.

Quack Medicines, and quack doctors will be exposed, and swindlers will not be allowed to impose on the people where the SCIENCE OF HEALTH is generally circulated.

This Journal will be the exponent of all known means by which Health, Strength, Vigor, and a Long Life, may be attained by using and regulating those agencies which are always accessible and so vitally related to Health and the treatment of Diseases, including Air, Light, Temperature, Bathing, Eating, Drinking, Clothing, Recreation, Exercise, Rest, Sleep, Electricity, Mental Influences, Social Relations, and all Normal agents and Hygienic materials. All that is required to keep well and to preserve health, is a knowledge of the uses and misuses of these agencies.

The SCIENCE OF HEALTH will be the best exponent of the scientific principles of these subjects, and not the organ of any particular institution, or of the professional practice of any one but devoted to the best interests of the whole people.

Terms.—Published monthly at $2.00 a year in advance; single numbers, 20 cents. Clubs often at $1.50 each, and an extra copy to agent; we are offering the most liberal list of Premiums. LOCAL AGENTS wanted everywhere, and cash commissions given. Address all letters to PROSPECTUS.

THE undersigned purposes, on the 1st of January, 1873, or as much earlier as the necessary preliminary arrangements can be perfected, commencing the publication of a Canadian Monthly Magazine, to be entitled

"The Northman and Canadian Magazine,"

It is the firm conviction, frequently urged upon the undersigned, of many, whose opinion in such matters is entitled to great weight, that, without assuming any rivalry towards now current publications, there is ample field in this Dominion for a new, first-class, literary monthly, wholly sustained by native, original contributions, and essentially Canadian in its character. To establish and maintain a magazine of this class, and one which shall not be inferior in excellence to any similar periodical now published in North America, is the determination of the undersigned in commencing "THE NORTHMAN AND CANADIAN MAGAZINE." To this end he has secured the services of a staff of contributors of established literary reputation, and which comprise a large proportion of those whom public opinion recognizes as the ablest and most accomplished minds of Canada.

While the most studious care will be exercised to prevent the now projected Magazine ever becoming the partisan exponent of the opinions, or feelings, of any party, class, creed, set, or profession, its pages will be open to the treatment of every class of subject which may prove of interest to a moral Canadian public; due attention being given to the proportioning of the lively and light to the more grave and solid matter, in providing for the mixed tastes and varied requirements such a public.

Knowing that the promise conveyed in a Prospectus affords no certain assurance of the excellence of the work of which it is the precursor, the undersigned will not dwell more at length upon this point. He asks an intelligent public only to test the efficacy of his efforts to establish a thoroughly Canadian monthly, which, with the talent he has engaged for its maintenance, he confidently hopes will take among the first of the British literary periodicals of the present day.

Each number of "THE NORTHMAN'S" will comprise about 100 pages, 8vo., its materials and mechanical execution being not inferior in quality to those employed in any other current publication of its class; and it will, each month, be published simultaneously at Ottawa, and in each of the principal capitals and principal cities of the Dominion. Its subscription price will be $3 per annum, in advance, exclusive of postage.

All which the undersigned asks of an intelligent and just Canadian public for his new literary enterprise is—a fair trial.
