Ocean Grain Receipts.

Montreal Gazette: The demand for ocean grain room has been somewhat limited since this day week, in consequence, the market has ruled quiet, but the undertone is steady to firm. All the September room has been engaged, but there is considerable October still on the market. There has been no change in rates, with the exception of those of London, which have advanced 1½d to 3d, while they have eased off about 1½d to Antwerp. We quote asking rates as follows: Liverpool, 1s 4d October; London, 1s 10d to 2s October; Glasgow, 1s 6d October; Manchester, 1s 8d October; Hamburg, 2s October; Antwerp, 1s 10d to 2s October; Belfast, 2s October; Dublin, 2s 3d October. According to latest mail advice from New York the ocean grain freight market for full cargoes is described as being extremely dull and depressed, while tonnage for prompt and early loading is offered freely, and though low rates for such is quoted shipments are not stimulated. Liverpool, 1½d; London, 1½d; Glasgow, 1½d; Newcastle, 3d; Antwerp, 1½d; Rotterdam, 3d; Bristol, 2½d; Leith, 2½d; Hull, 3d; Bremen, 2½pennings; Hamburg, 2½pennings; picked ports to United Kingdom, or continent, 1s 6d to 1s 7½d; Cork, for orders, 2s 3d to 2s 4½d.
