A WINTER SPRIMON.

Thou dwellest in a warm and cheerful home, Thy roofin vain the winter tempert lashes; While houseless wretches round thy mansion roam. On whose unsheltered hand the torrent plashes.

Thy board is loaded with the richest meats. O'er which thine eyes in sated languor wander. Many might leve on what ile mastif cate, Or feast on fragments which the servants squander.

Thy limbs are muffled from the plereing black When from thy fireside curner thou dost saily ; Many have scarce a rag amout them cast, With which the frosty breezes toy and daily.

Then hast soft smiles to greet thy kiss of love, When the light step resounds within the portal, Some have no friend savo lim who uwells above, No sweet communion with a fellow mortal.

Thou sleepest soundly on thy costly bed, Lulled by the power of luxuries unnumbered, Some pillow on a stone an aching head, Nover to wake again when they have slumbered

Then, think of those, who, formed of kindred clay, Depend upon the doles thy bonnty scatters, And God will hear them for the welfare pray-They are His children, the' in rage and tasters Mousehold Words

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

BURPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTRMA, AF-TER FIVE YEARS SUFFERING.

The following testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

Sentand Road. Liverpool.

Sin.—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of plaign intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most emitnent medical men of this town, but they falled to give must be slightest relief. As a lass remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored town and vigour to the chest and digestive organs. I am, Sir, your chedical Servant. (Signed) II. MIDDLETON, Dated Jan. 1st, 187.

to Profesior Holloway.

Diear Sir.—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other propriactory medicine before the public. As a proof of their ellicacy in Liver and Billowing Complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and dignitive organs, her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her gener's health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been no means of saving her life.

Sin.—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheomatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its secree and palnful attacks. I tried overy thing their was secondarial and was attended by would be entirely broken up. I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no bette: than when I went in I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with thom was perfectly cured, and enabled to return my occupation, and although a considerable period has clapsed, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged Servant, (Signed)

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.
Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 1 tth, 1853.

To Phopusson Holloway.

To Phoressor Holloway.

Sin.—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. C. Lain Jackson, of this piace, was affected with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much awoilen, and water coxed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparer came necessary, notwainstansing the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consuited, all was of no awail, until he commenced using your Pilis, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly, re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

Lum, Sir, yours respectfully.

(Sigued) G. BRIGGS.
