- History of the Dominion of Canada; From the Discovery of America to the Present Time. By Rev. W. H. WITHROW, D.D., F.R.S.C. It includes a History of the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, British Columbia and Manitoba, of the North-West Territory, and of the Island of Newfoundland; also, a Full and Correct Account of the late Rebellion in the North-West.
- The Story of Methodism Throughout the World. By A. B. HYDE, S.T.D. Professor of Greek in the University of Denver, Member of American Philological Association, etc. To which is added "The Story of Methodism in the Dominion of Canada." By HUGH JOHNSTON, M.A., D.D., and "The Story of the Epworth League." By Rev. JOSEPH F. BEAR, D.D. Embellished with nearly 600 Portraits and Views. With Classified Index of nearly 8,000 references.
- Our Own Country. Canada Scenic and Descriptive. By W. H. WITHROW, D.D., F.R.S.C. This is not a History of Canada, but a copiously illustrated account of the scenic attractions, natural resources and chief industries of Canada. It describes every city and almost every town in the Dominion. All persons who possess the author's "History of Canada" should also have this volume, which treats an entirely different aspect of the country's progress and resources.
- The Farmer's Friend and Account Book. Presenting Separate Accounts for all Farm Transactions, with Yearly Balance Sheet, Forms of Notes, Receipts, Due Bills, Orders and Contracts, Miscellaneous Rules, Interest, Valuable Recipes, Hints on Humanity to Animals, Log Table, Table of Wages and Price of Wood per Cord.
- The Child's Life of Christ. By HESSA STARRON, Author of "Jessica's First Prayer." A simple and graphic narrative of the pathways trodden, the scenes visited, the burdens borne, the help rendered, the blessings bestowed, and the lessons taught by Jesus the Christ when on his earthly pilgrimage. Containing a complete set of the celebrated engravings by Ploekhorst and Hofmann. A Child can read this whole story from the pictures. Size of Book, 8 x 10 inches. Illustrated. 253 pages.
- New Pictorial Parallel and Self-Pronouncing Bible. Two Bibles in one volume, including Bible helps of priceless value, never before published in one volume, the whole forming a complete cyclopaedia of Biblical knowledge. Our Bibles surpass all others in the beauty and durability of their bindings; in the amount and value of the collateral matter they contain; in richness of illustration, including colored plates; and for the satisfaction they give to subscribers.
- New Edition of the Sacred Scriptures: Self-Explanatory Reference Teacher's Bible. Prepared for Sunday-School Workers, Ministers, Students, the Family and the Pew. Marginal Readings and Parallel References thought. Of all editions of the Scripture none are so well fitted as this for the pupil, the class-room, home study, family devotion, public worship in the church and the various other forms of Christian activity. Beside the excellent arrangement of the contexts in parallel columns with the text itself, we have in "The Self-Explanatory Teacher's Bible" many additional features of marked interest. These have been added by the most competent Biblical scholars.
- Turkey and the Armenian Atrocities. A graphic and thrilling history of the events that have led up to and of the terrible massacres that have occurred in Armenia, so bloody and brutal in character and so vast in numbers as to shock and appal the entire Christian world. By Rev. EDWIN M. ELIAS, thirteen years a resident of Constantinople and son of the revered Isaac Elias, forty years Missionary in Turkey. Assisted by Rev. DR. CYRUS HAMLIN, D.D., founder of Roberts College, Constantinople; Prof. E. A. GROSVENOR, of Amherst College, and several eye-witnesses of the massacres. With an Introduction by Miss FRANCES E. WILLARD.
- Mr. Gladstone. An Illustrated Biography, with pictures from cover to cover. Size 11 x 14.

- The Little Giant Cyclopaedia. A treasury of ready reference. 1,000,001 figures and facts, with 82 colored maps and plates. A glance at this little book will convince the most skeptical of the truth of our claim that never before in the history of book-making was so much valuable information condensed in a single volume. 618 pages. Leather.
- Beautiful Songs and Star Singers. Designed expressly for the home circle. 200 pieces of Music, 24 Portraits and Biographies of the great singers and musicians.
- The People's Encyclopaedia. Published in Six Large Super-Royal Octavo Volumes. 86,727 articles. 21,376 more articles than in the Encyclopaedia Britannica. As a general Cyclopaedia it is most comprehensive in scope, most thorough in scholarship, most systematic in arrangement, most convenient for use, most practical in information, most complete in topics, most attractive in appearance, most recent in publication. You can get this splendid Cyclopaedia delivered complete, and pay for it at the rate of Seven Cents per day. A rare chance to secure a first-class Cyclopaedia at low cost and easy payment.
- The Earth Girdled. The Latest and the Greatest Book of Travels, by the Eloquent and Distinguished Author, T. DEWITT TALMAGE, D.D.
- The Story of My Life. By WILLIAM TAYLOR, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church for Africa. A full account of what he has thought and said and done in his ministry of fifty-three years with people of his own race and among the heathen. Written by himself. Embellished with more than One Hundred Original Illustrations.
- Character Sketches; or, The Blackboard Mirror. By Rev. G. A. LOFTON, A.M., D.D. With an Introductory Chapter by BISHOP O. P. FITZGERALD. It is a museum of living characters set forth in a series of illustrated discussions. It also presents a large number of moral, practical and religious subjects, examined from the standpoint of every-day observation, taking the facts just as they are found and holding them up to the gaze of the world with the mask torn off and the light of truth beaming full upon them.
