

THREE IMPORTANT BOOKS

Aylwin. By Theodore Watts-Dunton.

A vivid, enthralling, absorbing love story, full of movement and life and vigor. Its open-air freshness, its thrilling interest and its intense and noble passion, will make it one of the most eagerly read novels of recent years. The Seventh Edition of this remarkable work, by the friend of Tennyson, Browning, William Morris, and George Meredith, is now selling in England. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.50; Paper, 75c.

The Life and Letters of Lewis Carroll.

By S. D. Collingwood, B.A., nephew of Lewis Carroll (Rev. C. L. Dodgson), author of "Alice in Wonderland," etc., with 100 Illustrations.

The Life of Lewis Carroll is the life of Rev. C. L. Dodgson, an Oxford man, but it is also the life of the author of "Alice in Wonderland," of "Sylvie and Bruno," of "The Hunting of the Snark." Mr. Collingwood is a nephew of Lewis Carroll, and knew him well. In the task which he has completed, he has suffered almost from an embarrassment of riches. In the photographic art Carroll excelled, and produced a unique collection, as a glance at the list of illustrations to this volume attests. His friendship with Tennyson, Lord Salisbury, Rev. George Macdonald, Ruskin, etc., and especially Alice Liddell, the prototype of "Alice in Wonderland," may thus be traced pictorially. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $2.00.

The Town Traveller. By George Gissing.

Being No. 3 of Morang's Florin Series.

This is a decidedly cheerful story of lower middle-class English life, and the scene of it is laid in Dickens' London. That is to say, not only is it occupied with the classes of society with which Dickens chiefly and most successfully dealt, but even with situations and individuals that might have been the elder novelist's own. Above all the atmosphere is that of Dickens. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 50c.
