TURN TO THE EAST.

(By the Rev. James Bandinel.)

With regard to worshipping towards the East, there can be no doubt of its having been a very ancient practice of the Church; for it is mentioned by Clement of Alexandria, and by Tertullian. Bishop Stillingfleet, one of the most learned of our divines, considers it to be one of those customs derived from primitive times, and continuing to our own, which there is no reason to oppose, but rather to cherish.—Bishop of London's Charge.

Turn to the East—for there arose
The Dayspring from on high,
The morn whose faint reflection glows
Still in the eastern sky,—
With will and power to heal and bless,
There rose the Sun of Righteousness.

Turn to the East—for there did bloom,
On Jesse's stem, the Rose
Whose hue defies the autumn's gloom,
Nor heeds the winter's snows;
The fair, the bright, the fragrant flower,
Whose sweetness fills our Mother's bower.

Turn to the East—for there was born
The Sufferer meek and pure,
Condemn'd the bitterest taunts of scorn
And hatred to endure;
There, upon Calvary's mount, He died,
Betray'd, denied, and crucified.

Turn to the East—for there He burst
The fetters of the tomb;
And, triumphing o'er Death, revers'd
Our dark ancestral doom:
There the destroyer's vengeful rod
Was broken by the hand of God.

Turn to the East—the holy East,
And duly learn to prize
The Saviour's consecrated feast,
The Christian sacrifice:
The blessed gift in faith receive,
Doubt not, and ask not, but believe.

Turn to the East—for thence shall sound
The trumpet's startling tone,
Whose voice shall call the dead around
Their Judge's awful throne.
Turn to the East, and humbly pray
Thou mayst outlive the judgment-day.

THE REV. CHARLES WESLEY AND THE CHURCH.

(A Letter from the Rev. Charles Wesley, to the Rev. Dr. Chandler, just before the embarkation of the latter for America.)

London, April 28th, 1785.

Reverend and Dear Sir,—As you are setting out for America, and I for a more distant country, I think it needful to leave with you some account of myself and my companions through life. At eight years old, in 1715, I was sent by my father, rector of Epworth, to Westminster school, and placed under the care of my elder brother Samuel, a strict Churchman, who brought me up in his own principles. In 1727, I was elected student of Christ Church, Oxford. My brother John was then fellow of Lincoln.

The first year at college I lost in diversions. The next, I betook myself to study. Diligence led me into serious thinking. I went to the weekly sacrament, and persuaded two or three young scholars to accompany me; and likewise, to observe the method of study prescribed by the statutes of the University. This gave me the harmless nickname of Methodist. In half a year my brother left his curacy of Epworth, and came to our assistance. We then proceeded regularly in our studies, and in doing what good we could to the bodies and souls of men.

I took my degrees, and only thought of spending all my days at Oxford; but my brother, who always had the ascendant over me, persuaded me to accompany him and Mr. Oglethorpe, to Georgia. I dreaded exceedingly entering into holy orders; but he overruled me here also, and I was ordained deacon by the Bishop of Oxford, on Sunday, and the next, priest, by the Bishop of London.

Our only design was to do all the good we could, as ministers of the Church of England, to which we were firmly attached, both by education and principle. My brother still acknowledged her the best national church in the world.

In 1736 we arrived, as missionaries, in Georgia. My brother took charge of Savannah, and I of Frederica; waiting for an opportunity to preach to the Indians. I was, in the mean time, secretary to Mr. Oglethorpe, and also, secretary of Indian Affairs.

The hardships of lying upon the ground, &c., soon threw me into a fever and dysentery, which forced me in half a year to return to England. My brother returned the next year. Still we had no plan but to serve God and the Church of England. The lost sheep of the fold were our principal care; not excluding any Christians of whatever denomination, who were willing to add the power of godliness to their own particular form.

Our elder brother, Samuel, was alarmed at our going on, and strongly expressed his fears of its ending in a separation from the Church. All our enemies prophesied the same. This confirmed us more in our resolution to continue in our calling: which we constantly avowed, both in public and in private, by word, and preaching and writing; exhorting all our hearers to follow our example.

My brother drew up rules for our society, one of which was, constantly to attend the Church prayers and sacrament. When we were no longer permitted to preach in the churches, we preached (but never in church hours) in houses or fields, and sent from thence, or rather carried, multitudes to Church, who had never been there before. Our society in most places, made the bulk of the congregation, both at prayers and sacrament.

I never lost my dread of a separation, or ceased to guard our society against it. I frequently told them "I am your servant as long as you remain members of the Church of England, but no longer. Should you ever forsake her, you renounce me." Some of our lay-preachers very early discovered an inclination to separate, which induced my brother to publish "Reasons against a Separation." As often as it appeared, we beat down the SCHISMATICAL SPIRIT. If any one did leave the Church, at the same time he left our society. For fifty years we kept the sheep in the fold, and having fulfilled the number of our days, only waited to depart in peace. After our having continued friends for above seventy years, and fellow labourers for above fifty, can any thing but death part us? I can scarcely yet believe, that in his EIGHTY SECOND YEAR, my brother, my old, intimate friend and companion, should have assumed the episcopal character, ordained elders, consecrated a bishop, and sent him to ordain the lay-preachers in America. I was then in Bristol at his elbow; yet he never gave me the least hint of his intention. How was he surprised into so rash an action? He certainly persuaded himself that it was right.

Lord Mansfield told me last year, that ordination was separation. This, my brother does not, or will not see; or that he has renounced the principles and practices of his whole life; that he has acted contrary to all his declarations, protestations, and writings; robbed his friends of their boasting; realized the Nag's Head ordination; AND LEFT AN INDELIBLE BLOT ON HIS NAME, AS LONG AS IT SHALL BE REMEMBERED.

Thus our partnership here is dissolved; but not our friendship. I have taken him for better, for worse, till death doth us part; or rather, unite us in love inseparable. I have lived on earth a little too long, who have to see this evil day; but I shall very soon be taken from it, in stedfast faith, that the Lord will maintain his own cause, and carry on his work, and fulfil his promise to his Church, 'Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world."

Permit me to subscribe myself,
Reverend and Dear Sir,
Your faithful and obedient servant and brother,
CHARLES WESLEY.

P. S. What will become of these poor sheep in the wilderness, the American Methodists? How have they been betrayed into a separation from the Church of England, which their preachers and they no more intended than the Methodists here? Had they had patience a little longer, they would have seen a REAL PRIMITIVE BISHOP,* in America, duly consecrated by three Scotch Bishops, who had their consecration from the English Bishops, and are acknowledged by them as the same with themselves. There is therefore not the least difference between the members of Bishop Seabury's Church, and the members of the Church of England.

You know I had the happiness to converse with that truly apostolic man, who is esteemed by all who know him, as much as by you and me. He told me that he looked upon the Methodists in America, as sound members of the Church, and was ready to ordain any of their preachers, whom he should find duly qualified. His ordination would be indeed genuine, valid, and Episcopal. But what are you poor Methodists now? ONLY A NEW SECT OF PRESBYTERIANS, and after my poor brother's death, which is now so very near, what will be their end? They will lose all their influence and importance; they will turn aside to vain janglings; they will settle again upon their lees, and, like other sects of Dissenters, come to nothing.

* Right Rev. Samuel Seabury, D.D., first Bishop of Connecticut, was consecrated at Aberdeen, Scotland, November 14, 1784.

EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND
TO BE DISPOSED OF IN CANADA WEST (LATE UPPER CANADA.)
No Money is required down.
TO OLD SETTLERS, EMIGRANTS, AND OTHERS.
THE CANADA COMPANY offer about EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES OF THEIR LANDS, mentioned in the printed List of this year, which are in Blocks containing from 2,000 to 9,000 Acres each, situated in the Western District, and in scattered Lots, containing from 80 to 200 Acres each, situated in almost every Township in Canada West, on terms, it is believed, the most liberal and advantageous that have yet been made public. By this new plan, the Company dispose of their Lands by way of Lease for a term of Ten Years,—
NO MONEY BEING REQUIRED DOWN.
The Rents payable annually being only equal to the Interest upon the present upset value of the Lands—thus for example, suppose 100 Acres being now worth 10s. per Acre, is £50, the Interest thereon is £3, which latter sum, and no more, is the amount of Rent to be paid each year—full power being secured to the Settler to Purchase the Freehold, and take his Deed for the Land he occupies, at any time during the Lease, when most convenient to himself, at a fixed advance upon the present upset price: and of course, thereby saving all future payment of Rents. Assuming the value to be as above, (10s. per Acre) the advance required for the Deed would be 1s. 3d. if paid within the first five years from date of Lease—or 2s. 6d. per Acre, advance, if paid subsequently and previous to the expiration of the Lease.
The Lands offered (excepting only the Park and Town Lots in Guelph) vary in price from 2s. up to 15s. 9d. per Acre—the Rents upon which would be respectively as follows, viz:—

	£ s. d.
Upon 100 Acres, upset price being 2s. per Acre, the whole yearly Rent would be	0 12 0 and no more.

In order to afford every assistance to industrious and provident Settlers, the Canada Company will receive any sum, no matter how small the amount may be, for which their Settlers may not have immediate want, on Deposit,—allowing Interest at the rate of Six per cent. per annum for the same; but it is clearly understood, that the full amount with interest accrued, shall at all times be at the disposal of the Settler, without notice. For this purpose the Company have opened an Account, which is termed "Settler's Provident or Savings Bank Account,"—thus affording to the provident Settler, every facility for accumulating sufficient money to purchase the Freehold of the land which he leases, whenever he chooses to do so, within the term of Ten years; but should bad Harvests, or any other unforeseen misfortunes visit him, he has always the amount deposited, with Interest accrued, at his disposal to meet them.
The Lands are also to be disposed of upon the Company's former plan, viz.—for Cash down, or by One-fifth Cash, and balance in five equal Annual Instalments, with Interest.
The Company will remit from Canada any sum of money, however small the amount, to any part of the United Kingdom and Europe, free of all charge. The Company will also remit any sum of money from Europe to Canada, by Letters of Credit upon their Commissioners in the Province, free of expense, thus insuring the benefit of the premium of Exchange to the Emigrant, and likewise saving him from the inconvenience and too frequent loss arising from bringing his money with him in coin.
The Company, with a view to accommodate Emigrants having no immediate use for their funds, will allow Interest, at Four per Cent. per annum, for Money left with them for any period not less than Ninety Days,—the money, however, being always at the Emigrant's disposal, without notice.
Every kind of information upon Canada, and directions, that can possibly be useful to intending Emigrants to Canada, will be readily furnished, free of all charge, by applying, personally or by letter, to the Company's Office in England,—Canada-House, St. Helen's Place, Bishopsgate-Street, London.
The new printed Lists of Lands, (which may also be seen in every Post-Office and Store in Canada West,) and any particulars, may be obtained, free of charge, upon application (if by letter, Post-paid,) to the Company's Office at Toronto.
