

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 58
No. 21

TORONTO, MAY 25, 1917

ESTABLISHED
1867

The Week's Topics

Use of French language an aid in getting business in Quebec province, Page 9. Wills, life insurance and trust companies, Page 10. Heavy railroad equipment expenditures must be made, Page 10. Organization and development of the resources of the British Empire, Page 9

Railroad Problem

Grand Trunk Railway Company's statement regarding the Royal Commission's report, Page 24. Heavy equipment expenditures in prospect, Page 10. Absence of proper regulation helped to create our railroad problem, says Mr. A. H. Smith in his minority report, Page 18

Canada's Nickel

Nickel can be economically refined in Ontario. The province can compete successfully with any country. Government ownership not recommended. Canada has advantages in this industry. Summary of commission's report, Page 5

War Taxation

Official statement as to the period during which the amended taxation will be in operation, Page 10. Sir Thomas White's analysis in the House at Ottawa, of the principles of the business profits war tax act, Page 14

Bond Market

How Europe has raised its war loans; some interesting facts and figures regarding British and German loans, Page 26. The Monetary Times' weekly record of municipal financing, Page 8. Would Wall Street welcome Canadian government railroad loans? Page 42

Insurance

Death rate in the Canadian forces; statements of Mr. A. B. Wood, actuary, Montreal, Page 7. The weekly register of fire losses, Page 37. An estate with $22,000 life insurance, Page 25. Last session's amendments to the Ontario workmen's compensation act, Page 30

Corporation Finance

Canada Copper Company may erect new mill. Consumers Gas stock issue. Smart-Woods common stock is on 5 per cent. dividend basis. Tucketts' good report. Dominion Textile presents satisfactory report, Page 44

Ships and Shipping

Traffic through the Canadian canals last year, Page 25. Shipbuilders are busy in Nova Scotia, Page 30. Feasibility of connecting the Upper Lakes with tide water for ocean ships is questioned by commission, Page 25

STOCK EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS—Pages 36, 38.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 34.

DEBENTURES FOR SALE—Page 40.

REPORTS—Pages 16, 24A-24D.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents