

ARTICLE VII

Communications and Publications

1. No censorship shall be applied to the official correspondence and other official communications of the University.
2. The University shall have the right to use codes and to dispatch and receive official correspondence and other official communications by courier or in sealed bags, which shall have the same privileges and immunities as diplomatic couriers and bags.
3. The University shall have the right to publish freely within Canada, in the fulfilment of its purposes. It is, however, understood that the University shall respect the laws and the international conventions applicable to Canada relating to intellectual property.

ARTICLE VIII

Entry, Stay and Departure

1. The appropriate authorities shall facilitate the entry into and departure from Canada of personnel of INWEH, officials and experts and other persons invited thereto on official business.
2. Visas, where required, for persons referred to in paragraph 1 above, shall be issued by the Government of Canada free of charge and as promptly as possible.
3. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall also apply, as appropriate, to the spouses and relatives dependent on the persons referred to in those paragraphs.
4. Except as provided above in this Article and in the Convention, the Government of Canada retains full control and authority over the entry of persons or property into the territory of Canada and the conditions under which persons may remain or reside there.
5. No act performed by persons referred to in paragraph 1 above in their official capacity with respect to the University shall constitute a reason for preventing their entry into or departure from the territory of Canada or for requiring them to leave Canada.

ARTICLE IX

Privileges and Immunities of Officials, Personnel of INWEH and Experts

1. Officials of the University shall enjoy such privileges and immunities as are provided for by Section 18 of Article V and Article VII of the Convention.
2. Officials of the University within the scope of Section 19 of Article V of the Convention shall enjoy such privileges and immunities as are provided for by Sections 18 and 19 of Article V and Article VII of the Convention.
