

DECLARATION DEPOSITED BY
THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA
AT THE TIME OF ITS RATIFICATION OF THE INTER-AMERICAN CONVENTION ON
SERVING CRIMINAL SENTENCES
ABROAD

DECLARATION

The Government of Canada
declares that under current legislation it can neither transfer nor receive persons
under Article IX "Application of the Convention in Special Cases" whom the competent authority has pronounced unindictable for the purposes of treatment.