

A GLIMPSE FROM MOUNT ROYAL.

The Presbyterian College of Montreal is devoted to the training of missionaries and ministers speaking English, French and Gaelic, in connection with the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

The Montreal College and Grand Seminary, or the Seminary of St. Sulpice, on Sherbrooke street West, has a large number of students and professors. There are two courses of study—one for the church and the other for professions.

Laval University is to the French Catholics what the McGill University is to the English and Protestants of the province. The chief seat of this institution is at Quebec.

St. Mary's College, otherwise called the Jesuits' College, on Bleury street, is under the management of the Jesuit Fathers.

Villa Maria Convent is the mother house of the Sisters of the Congregation. It has accommodation for a great many pupils. The nuns in this Order make an annual retreat here from all parts of the country. The older part of the building was formerly known as Monklands, and was at one time the residence of the Governor-General of Canada.

The nuns of the Order of the Sacred Heart have an academy in Montreal, and a very beautiful convent at Sault-au-Recollet, six miles from the city.

The Hochelaga Convent is the mother house of the sisters of the Order of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary.
