The Lord Bishop of London's Letter to his Clergy, recommending that Branch of the Design of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, which relates to dispersing among the Poor plain Tracts on religious Subjects.

THE Subscribing and Corresponding Members of the Society in Great-Britain and Foreign Parts, are about 500; to which were added, in the Year 1740, Twenty-two Subscribing, and Twenty-four Corresponding Members; an Increase, which has been in good Measure owing to the Lord Bishop of London's Recommendation of their Designs, in the following Letter to his Clergy:

GOOD BROTHER, Whitehall, April 3, 1740.

THE Decay of Piety and Religion, and the Increase of Sin and Vice, are so visible in our Days, notwithstanding the Endeavours of the Parochial Clergy to prevent them; that no additional Expedients ought to be omitted, which may help, in any Measure, to preserve among our People a Sense of Duty, and a Spirit of Devotion.
