

---

---

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

---

CHAPTER I—CHRONICLES OF QUEBEC

Union Hall and Recollet Church—Where Anglicans Worshipped—Wolfe Memorial Services—General's Body Conveyed to England—Presbyterian Services—Soldiers Antiquated—Fraser Highlanders—Brock and de Salaberry—Jews and Legislature—Police Service—Craig's Road—Militia in 1812—Troops Have a Long March—American Prisoners of War—Wheat Growing—Notre-Dame Church and Square—Flour Trade—Press Gang—First Sitzings of Parliament—Turnpike Roads—l'Etoffe du Pays—Highways—Snowstorms in June—First Settlers—Night Watch and Lights—Duke of Richmond's Death—George IV Proclaimed—King's Printer—First Medical Society—Bellmen—Wolfe-Montcalm Monument—Friction Matches—Photography—Postal Statistics—Old and New Gates, Fortifications and Martello Towers, Etc., Etc. .... 1

CHAPTER II—BANKING AND CREDIT SYSTEM

Army Bill Office—Export of Specie—Paper Money Introduced—Canadian Currency—Organization of Local Banks—Fathers of the Quebec Board of Trade—Rebellion of 1837-38—Leaders Punished—Escape of American Prisoners—Where they were Secreted—Search for Missing Men—Meeting of Sympathizers Disturbed—Literary and Historical Society—Relics—Burning of Parliament Buildings—Sisters of Charity Church—Academy of Music—Peculiar Omission—The Marine Hospital—Quebec's First Newspaper, Etc., Etc. .... 16

CHAPTER III—STEAMER "ROYAL WILLIAM"

History of Her Construction and Career—Vessel Built at Cape Cove—Launching Ceremony—Voyage to England—Record as a War Vessel—The Steamers "Accommodation" and "Swiftsure"—Salute from Citadel Greets First Steamer from Liverpool—The Allan, Richelieu and Other Lines—Opposition Boats—Loss of the "Bahama"—Quebecers Drowned—One of the Crew Adrift for Six Days, Etc., Etc. .... 30

CHAPTER IV—QUEBEC IN PAST CENTURY

Review of City and Suburbs—Conditions in St. Roch's and Other Parts—"La Vacherie" and General Hospital—The "Blue" House—Homes on Grande Allée—Agricultural Society—Quebec Observatory—National School, Jesuit Church, Masonic Hall and Other Prominent Buildings—Haymarket Theatre, Archbishop's Palace