

"WHO'S THE DOG?" IS THE QUESTION

The Manufacturers' Association, the C. P. R., or the Workingman.

RE COMPENSATION ACT

Interesting Clash and Humorous Repartee at the Hearing.

Until yesterday afternoon the hearings held by Sir William Meredith on the Workmen's Compensation Act, were noted for their jovial and humorous nature.

"The clause is the same as in your own draft bills," urged the commissioner.

"I will not venture any suggestion when the clause is taken out of its context," said Mr. Wegman.

"Don't you think, Mr. Wegman, you should get down from your pedestal?" asked Sir William.

"No, Sir William, I am sorry, but this is the position I am obliged to take."

"Then I shall report that the gentleman who represented the manufacturers at this enquiry has refused to give any assistance in the preparation of the bill."

"Then your lordship will report what is untrue. I have devoted three years to the investigation," was Mr. Wegman's heated retort.

Some of the humorous bits of the hearing were as follows:

Sir William: Is $10 week too much to place as the average wage of the average working man in Ontario?

Mr. Wegman: It is, and it is simply astounding to hear that question coming from you.

Sir William: Well, I know what I have to pay.

Mr. Wegman: I guarantee that in Ontario there are more men getting less than $2 a day than more than $2 a day.

Sir William: I dare say there are many manufacturers who are not represented by you. What about Mr. MacMurphy and the C. P. R.?

Mr. Wegman: He represents about five per cent. of what I represent. I represent 85 per cent. of the pay roll of the province.

Sir William: Yes, but it's fallacious to say that because you represent 85 per cent. of the pay roll that you represent 85 per cent. of the manufacturers of the province.

Sir William: The manufacturers have been looking out for their own interests. They haven't had their workmen in mind.

Mr. Wegman: That's unfair.

Sir William: They knew the present act wouldn't do, and they wanted to meet the devil half way.

Mr. Wegman: There's a page out of my report (hunting for the lost page).

Sir William: I guess that's the one praising the bill. You left it at home like the prime minister of Quebec.

Sir William: The whole of your argument is to shelve down the schedule, all the others are fireworks and embellishments.

Mr. Wegman: That, Sir William, I submit is unfair.

Mr. Wegman: The board will be mixed up in politics. What we have in mind is that every possible care should be taken to keep the system out of politics.

Sir William (thinking of reciprocity presumably): Well, I understood the manufacturers sometimes dabbled in politics.

Sir William: I don't think I'll recommend you for a place on the board.

Mr. Wegman: I'm not looking for a place on the board, but thank you very much for the compliment, just the same.

Mr. Wegman: The tail shouldn't wag the dog.

Sir William: Who's the dog?

Mr. Wegman: The Manufacturers' Association; I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., C. P. R., and we're the tail.

Sir William: I think the workman's the dog.

Mr. Baneroff (Labor): No, the workman's just the hair on the dog's tail.

LATEST IN MEN'S HATS.

Women have been the targets for much ridicule over their subjection to the tyranny of fashion. But after all, are men free from similar aspersions? The difference in the successive styles that come year after year may not be so pronounced in their case, but it exists, and the male devotees of the latest vogue in coats, hats or ties are not a whit less insistent on being up to date as their wives, sisters, cousins or aunts.

KILLED BY TREE.

INGERSOLL, March 20.—(Can. Press.)—Half an hour after beginning work in the bush of Edgar Couch of North Oxford, in company with Melburne Bartindale, injuries which caused his death were received this afternoon by William Lewis. Lewis and Bartindale, with the assistance of Couch, were trying to dislodge a tree that had fallen into another. The second tree proved to be hollow, and the saw had only penetrated a short distance when it began to fall. It split, and altho he was trying to escape Lewis was knocked down by one of the pieces and his death occurred in a few minutes. He was thirty years of age and leaves a widow.

TURKS WERE REPULSED WITH SEVERE LOSSES

SOFIA, March 20.—(Can. Press.)—Severe fighting occurred yesterday along the Tchatalja lines. According to an official statement a Turkish division with artillery advanced against the Bulgarian left wing, but was repulsed with heavy loss. Another Turkish division, which advanced against the centre was put to flight by a Bulgarian counter attack. The Turks left 500 dead on the field. In the evening six battalions tried an attack on the extreme left, but were forced to retreat under heavy artillery and rifle fire.

ANSLEY GARDENS

NORTH TORONTO

This high-class residential property is situated in North Toronto, inside the city limits, commences one block west of Yonge Street, and the extreme west is one block east of Avenue Road. It is already surrounded by valuable homes ranging in price from $10,000 to $50,000. The district is served by the Metropolitan Railway, has a ten-minute car service, has sewers, sidewalks, roadways, hydro-electric lighting, gas and every city convenience; eighty-six-foot boulevards, lined on either side with stately avenues of pine trees. It has daily deliveries from city departmental stores, two daily mail deliveries, first-class local stores, churches, schools, and colleges, and is within one-half hour's electric railway and about fifteen minutes' motor car ride from Queen and Yonge. Altogether it is a better locality than Rosedale and Avenue Road Hill. These are facts, and $65 and $75 per foot are bargain prices.

In the daily papers during the present week the district called Glen Grove Annex was extensively advertised at $12, $13, $14 and $15 per foot, with the statement that it was within a few yards of our property described above. This advertisement was entirely misleading, as Bathurst Street is about a mile west of Beaumont Street, the extreme westerly limit of ANSLEY GARDENS, and Glen Grove Annex is north of the present city limits. It is purely farm land, has no car service nearer than Yonge Street, and has no convenience of any kind. In our opinion ANSLEY GARDENS positively is worth $100 per foot easier than the other property is $5, and will realize a much larger proportion of profit even as an investment, apart from its desirability as home sites.

Build Your Home in Glebe Manor

Glebe Manor, the closest-in property in Toronto, is about two miles inside the northern city limits. The west end faces on Yonge Street, and the east end of the property faces on Bayview Avenue, where it is expected a car line will be running by September. This property is being purchased by good people, and the prices are attracting very many actual home builders, as well as those who buy because they know values will rise.

Glebe Manor is a Substantial Buy

No place offers such a capital location, so near transportation, and where development work is seriously and scientifically done, as in Glebe Manor.

These three young ladies are ex-pupils of the school, and are destined to take a leading place among Toronto entertainers. Mr. Bostance, who convulsed the audience in hisimitable defence of the Widow Bardell in the trial scene from Pickwick. His recitation, with the whistling accompaniment, and his political speech in pantomime were greatly enjoyed. The thanks of the club are due to Sergeant
