RTHER DECLINE

ntiful Rains in Whole Wheat Belt Boon to Crops.

ICAGO, April 28.-Abundant re in all quarters gave the market today a bearish turn. g prices, altho steady, were 1-2c se under last night. Corn showed decline of 5-8c to 1 3-8c and a setback of 1-8c to 1-4c. In prons the outcome varied from 5c to a rise of 2 1-2c.

Rains that fell over the entire winand spring wheat belts were reded as a great boon to crops. Not tanding that seeding in some arts of the Northwest was delayed y the storm, the good done even in ch sections more than counterbal-nced the harm. In fact the field con-litions in every direction were re-orted so favorable that bullish news stracted but little attention. For ex-mple, a big decrease in the world's vallable supply passed almost unavailable supply passed almost unnoticed.

Desire to avoid taking deliveries on May contracts had much to do with weakening the corn market as a whole. Fine weather in Argentina added also to weaker feeling locally.

In the oats crowd sympathy with the depression in other grains was manifest, but overgenerous selling was quickly checked by elevator concerns.

Liquidating sales by miscellaneous holders carried down provisions. Packers, however, were alert buyers on the reak and succeeded in causing an early complete rally. ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

PLENTY OF GRAIN IN C. N. R. ELEVATORS.

The C. N. R. reports that, it has 8,300,000 bushels of grain in its Port Arthur elevators. This is more than any elevator in the world has held before. Since Sept. 1 last the Canadian Northern have handled 8,000,000 bushels of grain more than during the same period the previous year. It is understood that the grain elevators will be operated this season by electricity.

FARM DEED SET ASIDE.

Chief Justice Falconbridge yester-day decided that, owing to the advanced age of Peter Fryfogel, the deed of gift of his 100-acre farm to his son, Richard, should be set aside. It was held that the mental capacity of the old man had become impaired so that he did not understand the nature of the document he was signing.

PIG GROWING COMPETITION.

GALT. April 28.—The local office of the department of agriculture was advised today that the provincial department had decided to postpone the announced baby beef competition till autumn with September calves, and carry it on until December of next year. In substitution a "feeding hog" for profit contest is announced, open to farmers' sons under 25 years or those who have taken a course in agriculture under the district representative. Entries close on June 1. A two weeks' course and expenses in live stock and seed judging at the Ontario Agricultural College will go to the man who best combines economical feeding with the best bacon type.

NO FREE MAIL DELIVERY. WOODSTOCK, April 28.—Jas. G. Wallace, K.C., who was deputed by the Woodstock City Council to ask Ottawa for free mail delivery for this city, returned home this morning. He reported that the postmaster-general stated that as Woodstock did not have the necessary population of 12,000, free mail delivery could not be granted.
