

LETTERS FROM CANADA.

No. I.

TORONTO, C. W.. August, 1854.

"MY DEAR WYNDHAM,

"I am very glad to hear that my answers to your various questions for the guidance of the parties about to leave your noble relative's estates have been useful. Be assured that upon their arrival here they shall have the best advice and assistance I can render them, in locating them near those who have preceded them, and almost all of whom, I am happy to say, are progressing favourably, and many of them have had great success, and have already, from small land-renters and cottagers, become land owners to the extent of many thousands of acres—say nothing of having arrived at the dignity of squires, town councillors, reeves, and in more than one case, the privilege of writing J. P. after their names.

"Among the names of those which will be most familiar to you are those of

All of them desire to be kindly, and some of them 'gratefully,' remembered to you and to him; an expression which nine years ago would not have fallen from their lips. The very step which at that time seemed harsh to those who clung to the 'auld roof-trec,' however humble that home may have been, has turned out a blessing, and raised them to a position which in the old country they never could have reached.

"'The old country,' and 'home!' It is truly cheering to see and hear how fondly and frequently these words are uttered here. It has made my old heart stir within me, to hear them in the Viceroy's speech, the Provincial Parliament, the drawing room of the colonial aristocrat, and
