

INDEX

- favour of further exploration to the Hudson's Bay Company, but being refused joins the North-West Company as astronomer and surveyor, 103; establishes the latitude and longitude of the several Posts, 101; goes to the Swan River district, 104; finds comfortable quarters at Assiniboine House, 104; his famous journey to the Mandans on the Missouri River, 101; establishes the boundary between Rupert's Land and the United States, 106; mistaken in the source of the Mississippi, 105; sent to explore the Columbia River, 106; builds a trading-house for the North-West Company on the lower Columbia, 106; ordered to checkmate the Astor Fur Company by taking possession of the property at the mouth of the Columbia River, 106; takes formal possession of the Columbia at its junction with the Spokane, 107; arrives too late at the mouth of the Columbia, but reascends and erects two Posts at good objective points, 107; retires from the North-West Company into government employment, 107; prepares a map of the country, 107
- Thompson River, 109, 238
- Tod, Dr. John, an eccentric trader, 263, 268
- Touquin, the, 67, 287
- Turner, Philip, sent out by the Hudson's Bay Company as astronomer, 56; his expedition, 57
- V
- VANCOUVER ISLAND, made independent of the Hudson's Bay Company and united to the mainland, 270
- Voyageurs, 22, 25, 28, 35, 55, 70, 77, 82, 85, 108, 133, 139, 170, 233, 250
- W
- WADIN, M., a Swiss trader, killed by Peter Pond, 15
- Wedderburn, Sir John, 121, 122, 146
- Whale Island, 40, 44
- White Man's Lake, (Belbonllay Toe) 47, 51
- Winnipeg, Lake, 104, 160, 169, 170, 195, 251
- Winnipeg River, 6, 101, 160, 251
- X
- X. Y. COMPANY, the, formed, 92; builds its headquarters at Grand Portage, 93; Mackenzie at the head of, 98-9; unites with the North-West Company, 99; its ruinous policy of using strong drink, 210
- Y
- YORK FACTORY, 2, 103, 152, 155, 159, 178, 226, 232, 261
- Yukon River, 50, 288