

8 CHARLES H. PEIRCE & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

MAHAN ON ROMANS IX.

A new work, by President MAHAN, consisting of a series of lectures, founded upon the 9th of Romans. This volume is thought, by good judges, to present the best exposition of this important and difficult Scripture extant, and will be read, especially by Armenian Christians, with peculiar satisfaction.

---

RAMBLES IN EUROPE.

BY REV. MARK TRAFTON, A. M.

A few of the sketches of a late European tour, composing the present volume, have appeared in the Herald and Ladies' Repository, which afford the public a fair promise of the rich treat in store for them.

---

THE LAST WITNESS.

BY REV. O. C. BAKER.

Miniature, gilt.

An interesting little volume, presenting, in instructive contrasts, the final expressions of dying Christians and unbelievers.

---

TOKEN OF FRIENDSHIP.

A GIFT BOOK FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

EDITED BY BRADFORD K. PEIRCE.

Seven elegant engravings. Elegantly bound. Price $2.00.

We referred to this work lately. It is now before the public, and will, we doubt not, receive a hearty welcome. The literary merits of such publications are hardly admitted to the test of criticism. Annuals redeem themselves from the tribunal of the critic by an appeal to the eye. The typogra-