

EDUCATIONAL AND RESIDENTIAL.

The one presupposes the other. The great desideratum for a place of residence is the facilities for every branch of education. The opportunities are here unsurpassed. There are over fifty public schools, three collegiate institutes, several separate schools and colleges, besides universities identified with the principal denominations, ladies' colleges, medical and business colleges, and colleges of music, all conducted in accordance with the highest known standards.

HOSPITALS AND SANITARIUMS.

The salubrity of the climate, the purity and excellence of the water supply, and the splendid drainage system, make Toronto eminently suitable as a health resort and headquarters for recognized sanitariums.

Staff of Nurses—Rotherham House.

Chief among these institutions are the Toronto General Hospital, on Gerrard Street East, situated in extensive grounds; the Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, on College Street, with its summer quarters—the Lakeside Home—on the Island; the Grace Homeopathic Hospital, on College Street; St. John's (for women); Hillcrest Convalescent Home; St. Michael's; Toronto Home for Incurables, and others.

Regarding private sanitariums, one worthy of special mention is Rotherham House, Dr. Holford Walker's private hospital at 54, 56 and 58 Isabella Street. These three buildings are arranged in a most advantageous manner. Two of the houses are semi-detached, with a brick dividing wall,
