

The American Geologist

Was begun January 1, 1888, and has been issued monthly since that date. It is not the organ of any institution, nor of any section of the country, nor of any party.

Its Editorial Board

Is made up of twelve active Geologists, whose places of residence are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Lakes to the Gulf. One is connected with the Canadian Geological Survey, three have been employes of the United States Geological Survey, two are State Geologists, four are employed on State Surveys, five are Professors in State Universities or other leading institutions of learning and all are active participants in the development of American Geology.

It Contains

Original articles by American Geologists and monthly reviews of current Geological literature. It gives personal and scientific news. It is cosmopolitan in its scientific scope and is open to the thoughtful and careful contributions of all Geologists.

Subscription is $3.50 per Year;
and $4.00 to Foreign Countries.

Sample Copies, twenty cents.

Back numbers can be supplied at $1.50 per volume. Two volumes yearly, each of more than 400 pages.
