MIDNIGHT SONS ARE EASY

Wilkes Top Scorer With 566—All the Bowling Scores of a Night.

In the Atheneum Association last night the Midnight Sons dropped the whole series of Doc Carruth's Spoilers, who rolled a nice, even game, every man except one being over 500, with Jack Wilkes on top, with 566.

The A. Y. C. won two from the Imperials in the B League, taking the first by seven pins. Curley Barnes was high man, with 488.

The Mercantile League game resulted in the Thompson Mfg. Co. making a clean sweep, the Consolidated Optical Co. being the victims. Cap. Currie was there with bells on, totaling 568.

The big feature of the night was the annual match between the J. F. Brown Co. and the F. C. Burroughes Furniture Co. The Yonge street establishment proved too strong for the West Queen street bowlers, winning all three games. Mr. Arries, with 480, was the high roller for the night, while Mr. Cawkill, with 467, was the best roller for the Burroughes Company. The scores follow:
