PENNOLINE

A BURNING OIL

IOHN KAY, SON & CO., LIMITED.

A Bargain List

FROM THE

Drawing-room Flat

TERE IS A LIST of the most decided bargains in Parlor Furniture we have offered for a long time. It is made up chiefly of High-class Odd Settees, which we have decided to clear because we need the room they occupy. Nearly all are imported frames upholstered in the best manner in our own workrooms.

We have cut the prices low enough to insure the speedy sale of every one in the lot :-

No. 168, Fancy Settee, a dainty No. 432, a Handsome Mahogany Set Sheraton design, in solid mahog-any, with inlaid lines, softly up-holstered, with spring seat and covered with fancy cotton, regu-

No. 605, Colonial Settee, a comfort-able and shapely design, well up-holstered and covered in fancy cot-No. 620, a charming Sheraton Settee, softly padded in seat and back and covered in green sateen, regur $38.00, clearing 28.50 No. 591, Parlor Armchair, solid ma-No. 600, Sofa, solid mahogany, in the Louis XVI. style, softly upholstered seat and back in fancy cotton,

No. 431, Colonial Sofa, in choice ma-hogany, with richly carved back and carved claw feet, a beautiful design, regular $50.00, 38.50

tee, in fine mahogany, with deep spring seat, in fancy cotton, regular $40.00, clearing 30.00 $40.00, clearing 30.00

$32.00, clearing 19.00 No. 594, a Small Sized Davenport Sofa, with solid mahogany frame, well upholstered and covered in fancy cotton, regular 28.50

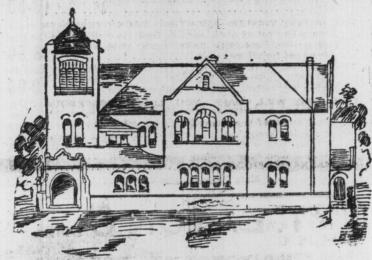

hogany frame, with inlay of brass lines, upholstered seat and back in fancy cotton, regular $30.00, clearing at 15.00 regular $40.00, clearing 22.50 No. 20, Parlor Suite, two quaint pieces (sofa and armchair), with mahogany frames, high backs, upholstered in fancy cotton and deep spring seats, regular 46.50 $66.50, clearing at

JOHN KAY, SON & CO., Limited 36-38 KING STREET WEST.

NEW HOME OF METHODISM.

lege-street and Sheridan-avenue, will be growing congregation. Recently the laid this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Chancellor Burwash. Rev. Dr. W. B. Booth, the pastor, will conduct the ceremonies. Under his pastorate the treembership of the church has grown membership of the church has grown under the oversight of Rev. Messrs.

New Home of College Street Methodists, the Corner Stone of which will be from 200 to 500, and the finances have improved accordingly under the guidance of G. H. Fairles, treasurer.

The Dundas-street West Mission was started a number of years ago as a branch of the Wesley Church, Dundas-street, services being held in the Brockton town hall, under the leadership of Rev. H. W. McTavish. Later the St. Clarens-avenue Church was erected, where the work has been carried on church lot, and also for a large lawn.

Union, Chester D. Massey, the Honsender of Hongary ("Well, you, as an officer of the New York Life, issue an order, and, Perkins, as an officer of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life when for J. P. Morgan & Co? When were you acting for the New York Life?"

"All the time."

"I don't understand your point."

"Well, you, as an officer of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life when for J. P. Morgan & Co? "All the time."

"Well, you, as an officer of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life when for J. P. Morgan & Co? "All the time."

"When were you acting for the New York Life of the New York Life when for J. P. Morgan & Co? "All the time."

"When were you acting for the New York Life of the New York Life when for J. P. Morgan & Co? "All the time."

"When were you acting for the New York Life of the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acting for the New York Life of J. P. Morgan & Co., receives it—when were you acti Laid ToDay. from 200 to 500, and the finances have Union, Chester D. Massey, the Hon.

Drunkards Cured In One Day

quit drinking intoxicating liquors.

Many have been cured in one day with a

MUSIC

Culture rtments

EGE

Princi pa

CHOOL

nto

lation

Y Boys

ctusap

2467 meni

urse in

RONTO

ginning 1th

a lesson

herefore order to d by apon, Mrs.

"Alfal Package of the Great Raines Gard.

World flexe Saved line from

This Awild Ind.

Lola Pendicton, Rocky Mountain, Yas, etc. the Packet of the Package of the Great Raines Gard.

Lola Pendicton, Rocky Mountain, Yas, etc. the Packet of the Package of the Great Raines Gard.

Lola Pendicton, Rocky Mountain, Yas, etc. the Packet of the Packet Raines of the College Specific which Specific which

"That depends on the occasion."
"Well, if you were acting for the New York Life there is not much time TORONTO WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE left for J. P. Morgan & Co," remarked Mrs. Ingham Tells of Sensation of Mr. Perkins then burst into a pro Great Railway Wreck.

Among the injured in an accident on the Great Eastern Railway, at Witham, near Chelmsford, England, on Sept. 1, when 10 people were killed and 44 more put in the drunkard's coffee or food will destroy all desire for drink. This remedy is so simple that anyone can use it and the Grunkard need never know why he quit drinking intoxicating liquors.

Great Railway Wreck.

Among the injured in an accident on the Great Eastern Railway, at Witham, near Chelmsford, England, on Sept. 1, when 10 people were killed and 44 more or less hurt, was Mrs. Ingham of Lansdowne-avenue, Parkdale, Toronto, who is over on a visit after an absence of thirty-four years. She only arrived one or the other end?"

Among the injured in an accident on the Great Eastern Railway, at Witham, near Chelmsford, England, on Sept. 1, when 10 people were killed and 44 more or less hurt, was Mrs. Ingham of Lansdowne-avenue, Parkdale, Toronto, who is over on a visit after an absence of thirty-four years. She only arrived of the Septender of the Septende of thirty-four years. She only arrived on the previous Sunday morning, and had been staying in King's-road, Tot-had been staying in King's-road, Tottenham, with her brother, Mr. Charles Bocking, whose wife is, by-the-bye, sister to the late Mr. Herbert Campbell, the well-known comedian. Mrs. Ingham, who wishes her friends and relatives to know she is not seriously injured, on being seen at Tottenham, gave the following details:

"I and my brother Charles joined the train at Liverpool-street for the purpose of going to see some friends of my youth at Neylands. We were in the carriage next to the engine or next "masters."

Mr. Perkins replied: "My loyalty lies where my duty is."

"I want to say right here," continued Mr. Perkins, "that since I have been with J. P. Morgan & Co. during the last four years the company has marked more securities than the New York Life, the Equitable and the Mutual have accumulated in the last sixty years. Competition is no longer the life of trade; it is co-operation."

"Now about the $800,000 sales purchase," said Mr. Hughes, interrupting, "you had the goods in your vaults at of my youth at Neylands. We were in the carriage next to the engine or next but one—I don't know which—and were seated facing the engine, the other occupants of the compartment being a gentleman and his wife and a young gentleman and his wife and a young "And then you got rid of them, for what purpose?"

"Because it was a good business inlady. These were opposite to us.

"I noticed nothing at all unusual—the train did not seem to be going exceptionally fast—until all at once there was a violent jerk, and for some instants all of us in the carriage were bounced about like indiarubber balls. I was thrown on to my knees, which are now somewhat bruised. When our carriage which was not overturned game e adv. These were opposite to us. now somewhat bruised. When our carriage, which was not overturned, came to a standstill we were carried into a waiting-room, which was crowded with other passengers, including little babies, tother passengers, including little babies, tother passengers, including little babies, tother passengers are the relations of the New York Life and J. P. Morgan & Co.? Do you personally profit by those relations?"

Wednesday of next week.

other passengers, including little babies, most of them bleeding. I never "aw such a sight before. I noticed as we were being taken away that the engine THE OUTCOME OF A DRUNKEN SPREE

Was lying alongside blazing, and that some of the other carriages were also ranged with J. P. Morgan & Co. to sell it at a price and then I bought it back at the same price. After re-buying I held on to it and finally sold it at 90. Our first idea was to sell at 80. but we finally got 90."

NEW YORK LIFE Continued From Page 1.

"Were not the sale and purchase made for the purpose of deather.

"Were not the sale and purchase made for the purpose of deceiving the commissioner of insurance?"

"No, it was not. Securities were de-

An Odd Amount Senator Armstrong asked about the $48,000 campaign contribution. "How came the cheque to be such an odd amount?"

amount?"
"I don't know exactly except that.
Mr. Bliss had asked for $50,000."
"Were you in a position to know of other campaign contributions?" asked

Senator Armstrong.

"I don't know—that is a question that ought to be looked into. To all campaign contributions I believe that the fullest publicity should be attached. They ought to be publicly known and there ought to be a law passed to that effect."

"Is there no restraint upon the offi-

Morgan & Co., and the re-purchase on

J. P. Morgan & Co. at the same time?

"I recall no other transaction."
Mr. McKeen—"Did you confer on this matter with any one—any other member of J. P. Morgan & Co?"

"Yes, there was no possibility of loss and I had no other course open to me

but to do as I did."
"Did any of J. P. Morgan & Co.'s people know of the transaction?"
"I presume those who saw it thru."
Senator Armstrong: "Did you personally carry the stock from the New York Life to J. P. Morgan & Co.'

"I have made no deliveries since have been in the service of the com-

"Who made the actual delivery?"

"You should ask the custodian of the securities. I did the initial work and was responsible for the transac-

"Was there any delivery?"

"We got a draft—L know that,"
Perkins to Perkins.

"Now in the transaction—when did Mr. Perkins, an official in the New York Life, give way to Mr. Perkins, an official of J. P. Morgan & Co?"

"Because it was a good business in-

"We did."
"Who conducts the joint accounts on

Morgan's Offer.

vestment."
"In other syndicate transactions you furnished the money?"

"I don't understand your point."

but to do as I did.'

authority."

you brought that matter up. In that transaction we asked for $5,000,000 of bonds and only got $4,000,000. We made up our minds to sell $800,000 of this sum and our books therefore showed only $3.200,00. When it came to the end of the year we sold the $800,000 and instead of taking a loss of $160,000 we only took a loss of $30,000. I arranged with J. P. Morgan & Co. to sell it at a price and then I bought it back CORNER SIMCOE and

THE REPOSITORY.

ESTABLISHED 49

Auction sales of Horses, Carriages, Harness, etc., every Tuesday and Friday at 11 o'clock . Private sales every day.

Property of the pressed at the time and it was considered a good deal."

"But the real purpose was to have your books read $3,200,000 instead of $4,000.000?"

"Yes." GREAT AUCTION SALE, Tuesday Next, Sept. 19th

ALL CLASSES, CONSISTING OF HEAVY MATCHED PAIRS HEAVY DELIVERY HORSES GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES EXPRESS HORSES CARRIAGE HORSES DRIVERS AND WORKERS -INCLUDING-

8 CAR LOADS

Specially selected horses, bought by experienced buyers, among them being cers in these campaign cont ibutions?"
"None that I know of. I think we have a right to leave them there, to the judgment of the officers."
"If the president out of his own executive authority, without reference to and kind in all harness; also several heavy pairs, weighing from 2800 to 3000 to 3000."

Specially selected horses, bought by experienced buyers, among them being Williamson Bros., Port Hope; Bert Weese, Lindsay; W. H. Graham, St. Mary's; W. B. Williamson, Millbrook; W. H. Cudmore (2 cars), Seaforth; Thos. Jacques, Chatham; George Williamson, Bowmanville. Mention is made of a particularly fine pair of bays, mare and gelding, 6 and 5 years, sound and kind in all harness; also several heavy pairs, weighing from 2800 to 3000.

the finance committee, pays out such large sums as these, how do they ever come before the officers of the com-A. Chan In addition to the above will also sell the following, consigned by Mr. J A. Chantler, Toronto: Harry S., Mona W and his entire racing outfit, including a new racing wagon, one of the best manufactured, weighing 65 lbs. This "I have said the finance committee wagon was purchased during the Exhibition. Also a Flower City sulky, which has been used only a few times. Pneumatic tire wagon, weighing 130 has no authority over the agency accounts and general expenses. I think there should be a broadening of this lbs, also purchased at the Exhibition. This is a thoroughly up-to-date wagon Also runabout with wicker back, two sets of American road harness, rugs, Assemblyman Rogers then expressed his desire to ask a few questions about the sale of bonds on Dec. 31, to J. P. whips and stable utensils.

HARRY S., 2.221 holds the record over Dufferin half-mile track, having de feated Helen R. in a five-heat race, stepping a half in 1.06, beating the record over the same track previously held by Bertha W. Harry S. is a brown geld-"Now, Mr. Perkins, you acted in the transaction for the Life Insurance Company, and also for J. P. Morgan & Co?" ing, perfectly sound, can step a mile track in 2.12 or better, or a half-mile track in 2.16 or better. He goes without hobbles or boots of any kind, is an excellent road horse, perfectly reliable, and a lady can drive him. He will sold without reserve on Tuesday at the Repository.

MONA W., bay mare, a prize winner. This mare is one of the handsomest P. Morgan & Co. because that house was the only place where I could readrivers in the City of Toronto, is very fast, can step a mile in 2.30 or better. She is a beautiful driver and is accustomed to all city sights. A lady can drive her, as she is one of the most reliable mares in Canada. No reserve. Consigned by J. J. Doran, North Bay-BLACK JOE, 2.141. This horse can go very fast with or without hobbles. Has stepped a mile over the Ex-hibition half-mile track in 2.16. Is perfectly fearless of all city sights and will be sold without reserve.

Consigned by J. G. Wilson, Paris: EVANGELINE, brown mare, 15½ hands, eight years. Bred in Michigan; sire Alameda Wilkes, by Onward, dam by Assemblyman Rogers: "Has there been any other case in which you have I ouis Napoleon. One of the greatest road mares that ever were imported to this country. She can road easily fifteen miles an hour; perfect in conformaacted-for both the New York Life and tion and all-round action; sound.

PELL MELL (thoroughbred). Chestnut mare, 16 hands four years, sired by Morpheons (imp.), dam Pall Mall (imp.). by Lowland Chief. This mare is just cut of breeder's hands, has never been raced and is a good jumper; would make an excellent hunter; sound "In effect, you acted alone for both.
P. Morgan & Co. and the New York Also on same date we will sell a doctor's outfit, including chestnut mare phacton and harness. This mare is perfectly city broken and can be driven

SPECIAL

TUESDAY,

Who is taking up the auto, we will sell his handsome pair of bays "Castor" and "Pollux," 15.3 hands, 6 years, sired by "Cyclone" out of standardbred mares, winners of 28 ribbons, including three championships; also "Candidate," bay mare, 15.1 hands, 9 years, Tuesday, Sept. 26, together with his entire and complete stable outfit, consisting of Victoria, brougham (S. Brown), T cart (Hutchinson), tilbury and runabout, double family sleigh, single sleigh, four handsome musk ox robes, single and double sets of English harness, Kay collars, liveries made by Henry A. Taylor, etc; saddles, knee rugs, blankets, etc., all purchased for show purposes. Prospective buyers of this high-class equipment can have the privilege of inspecting liveries, etc., and trial of horses any day previous to sale, by receiving an order from our office. Castor and Pollux and Can'fidate are some of the handsomest carriage horses on the streets of Toronto, safe, sound and reliable in every way. Any family desiring high-class horses and prize appointments would do well to attend this sale. Readers are requested to note the invitation for inspection before

PECIAL SALE-SHIRE STALLIONS AND FILLIES

The Property of MR. JOHN CHAMBERS, NORTHAMPTON, ENGLAND Who cables us to announce that he will be here with 20 MARES AND 10 STALLIONS To be sold the first week in November. Further particulars at a later date.

Catalogues mailed on application. BURNS & SHEPPARD,

Mr. Pember, Torento. Ont.:

Dear Sir,—I have been bald from the age of twenty-four years, and for years suffered much from colds in the head. Some ten years ago I was advised to wear a Toupee, and am now wearing one of your Natural Scalp Toupees and am delighted with it, as it is most natural and it fits perfectly, and I can highly recommend them Yours respectfully, F. SHIPTON, Hamilton, Ont. to anyone who is bald. I remain, behalf of the New York Life?"

"I do, all of them."
"Will you tell us, Mr. Perkins, what

Mr. Perkins arose and said: "We have been very successful in developing our Welsh Youth's Perilous Climb Up agency work. Our business was in-creasing and the organization pretty well completed. We made an estimate the Face of a Cliff.

Ocean liners-cablegrams. More free than easy—park benches-Even a safe combination may be un-the Face of a Cliff.

A 19-year-old youth named Walter cine taken for better or for worse.

Toronto Sunday World

Canada's Handsomest Newspaper

Pictorial Features for To-Morrow.

IMPENDING COAL STRIKE. Fine portrait of John Mitchell, President of the Mine Workers' Union, whose word is law to the miners, and a statement of the disputed questions which may bring on another coal miners strike in the United States in December.

TORONTO, MONTREAL

TENNIS TOURNAMENT. Pictures of the recent Ontario tennis matches

Excellent picture of the High River Polo Team, one of the most dashing aggregations on this vince of Alberta. Great improvements have been made at the Woodbine race course since the spring meeting.

Bird's eye view of the new track..

Panoramic view of the capital of the new Pro-

On Sunday last York Lodge, I.O.F., proceeded to St. John's Cemetery, Norway, and placed wreaths of flowers upon the graves of deceased JAPAN AND PEACE Tokio was greatly incensed over the terms of

CORNER STONE LAYING.

street on Sunday last.

DECORATION DAY

the peace treaty. Scene on a street in Tokio when the bulletins were issued. AN ISLAND ROSE GARDEN.

Picture of Archbishop O'Connor laying the corner stone of St. Patrick's Church on McCaul-

Glimpses of Hanlan's Point, showing how the island is being changed from a waste of shifting sand to a literal rose garden.

TORONTO SWIMMING CLUB Lively pictures of a lively and popular island

Canadian Scenery

The Summer Fallow The Old Spring A Daughter of the Fields

Page of Fashions for Women and the Best Story Paper Sold in Toronto--Clean, Wholesome, Entertaining -- Every Page Fit for the Home.

THE SUNDAY WORLD

BASTEDO'S 77 King St. East

Manufacturers Alaska Seal Jackets

W. B. TAYLOR. B.A., L.L.B.,

J. L. BLAIKIE, President. L. GOLDMAN, A.I A., F.C.A.,

reached? Has any man with others depending upon him attained this condition if he does not carry seme life insurance for their protection? A policy with a good company makes a security the payment of which is absolutely cor-

A popular saying-but is the con" dition of "well enough" easily

The strong financial position of the

"LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE."

North American Life suggests where the insurance should be carried. HOME OFFICE, TORONTO, ONT.

a burden. As soon as the infirmities of old age creep on them they are given a soothing draught and wrapped in a fresh antelope skin. Thus attired they are carried by members of their family to a spot some distance from the villing place and express horror and surprise at the unfortunate incident."

ARE THE HIGHEST GRADE INSTRU-MENTS MADE IN