GARDENER WEDS HEIRESS

Lena Head, Who Will Inherit Thirty Millions, Secretly Married on Thursday.

MOTHER OF BRIDE SAYS 'BEGONE

She Never Wants to See Lena Again —Ward of George C. Taylor.

New York, Sept. 5.—In a summer house on the estate of George C. Taylor, a multimillionaire, at Islip, N.Y., a secret marriage was solemnized on Thursday at noon, when Mr. Taylor's ward, Miss Lena Head, became the bride of Frederick William Bodley, who had charge of the landscape department at the World's Fair, and has been superintendent of Mr. Taylor's estate for six years. The story of the marriage is a romantic one. The bride is 18 and is the heir to Mr. Taylor's vast fortune, estimated at $30,000,000. Mr. Bodley is 35. One of his first duties on the Taylor estate was to teach Miss Head, when she was 10 years of age, to ride a bicycle. Then the friendship was begun, and thereafter they were seldom apart. It was thru instruction from Mr. Bodley that Lena learned to play golf, tennis and croquet, and became an expert swimmer. As she grew older she cared little for society and was only contented when roaming about the estate in company with Mr. Bodley.

Two weeks ago Mr. Bodley met Justice Wright and made arrangements for the ceremony. The witnesses were gathered in the summer house. After a few preliminary questions, Miss Head and Mr. Bodley clasped hands, and the Magistrate read the service of the Methodist Church. The bride wore a white duck skirt and a shirt waist. She was bareheaded as the ring was placed on her tanned hand. There was no attempt at any formality, and after the ceremony the couple sat a few moments discussed the question as to how the news should be broken to Mrs. Head.

"Go tell her mother right away," said the magistrate. "Walk over together, and get it off your minds."

"Good advice the judge is giving us," remarked the bride.

"Yes—it—is," said the bridegroom, thoughtfully.

"No, it won't do, either," said Mrs. Bodley. "Mother is too nervous to-day for the shock."

The bridegroom handed the magistrate a $50 bill, and presented him and the witnesses each with a crescent pearl pin, and bade them good-by, each being under the bond of secrecy.

After the ceremony Mrs. Bodley returned to the mansion and Mr. Bodley went about his duties. Having arranged business matters to his entire satisfaction, so that he could leave for a few days, Mr. Bodley decided to-day to break the news to Mrs. Head. Walking over to the mansion alone, while his wife waited at the lodge, he said abruptly to Mrs. Head:

"I have married Lena."

Just what transpired is not known. The conversation ended when Mrs. Head remarked:

"I never want to see Lena again. Begone!"

Mr. Bodley rejoined his bride and the couple were driven to the Great River station.

"If I have to leave the place I will do so, and take my bride with me," said Mr. Bodley to-day.

JAPAN TO FIGHT RUSSIA.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 6.—Bishop John McKim of Tokio, Japan, chairman of the Executive Board of Foreign Missions of the Episcopal Church, is visiting his brother here. Interviewed he said: "Japan is exceedingly anxious to fight Russia. Of the people of the Mikado's realm nineteen-twentieths are eager to fight, and if it were not for Japan's foolish pride about borrowing money she could win in a struggle with Russia."

TO CHEAT FRENCH.

Constantinople, Sept. 6.—The Porte, it is said, is endeavoring to come to a direct understanding with the French claimants against the Ottoman government, hoping thus to deprive the French government of its grounds for action.

ANOTHER CASE.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—A sixth case of smallpox was discovered in Ottawa to-day. A 12-year-old boy of Cooper-street, named Brennan, is the victim. His brother took the disease two weeks ago.

MAY HAVE JUDGESHIP.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Hon. D. C. Fraser is in the city. He will have the refusal of the chief justiceship of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories.

The Midnight Combat.

Most of us have heard of ships that pass in the night, and some of us have played with chips that pass in the night, but there is one man who has been camping out in the Horticultural Gardens lately to escape the bugs that pass in the night at his apartments. This individual is of a philosophic turn of mind, and makes the best of a painful business. Instead of turning in when bedtime comes and wrestling all night with the pestilence that walketh in darkness, he hies him to the gardens and smokes a quiet pipe. The cool-headed man beats the game every time.

Halifax Notified.

Halifax, Sept. 6.—Lieut.-Governor Jones was notified to-day by Lord Minto that the Duke and Duchess of York will arrive here at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 19, and sail at 5 a.m., on Monday for St. John's, Nfld., thus curtailing their stay here one day.

SOMETHING FOR THE DEAF

Deafness is so common an infirmity among all classes that it will be of interest to those of our readers so afflicted to know that a curative treatment, based chiefly on external application, has been lately discovered, and is giving some wonderful results in England, where it is now extensively applied.

This discovery is now some years old, and is due to a French aurist, Dr. Drouet, of the Faculty of Medicine, Paris. We will try to explain in what the new treatment consists.

When the anatomy of the organ of hearing is studied, we notice that all its delicate parts—the labyrinth or inner ear, and the tympanic cavity—are carefully sheltered inside the skull. And it is always there that the chronic maladies from which Deafness result are situated. Without the operation of trepanning, it is impossible to reach these essential parts, and for a long time there was a question of discovering by what means remedies for restoring their functions could be applied. The most strange and ingenious processes have been successively employed; catheterism or inflation of the Middle Ear, application of liquids or vapors through the nose, syringing, blistering.

The effects of electricity have, of course, been tried, and general treatment has been assiduously resorted to. But it must be owned that no lasting results have been obtained by these means, and, on account of the difficulty of treatment, Deafness has been looked upon by all as a nearly incurable complaint.

But Drouet hit one day on the idea of utilizing the well-known absorbent properties of the skin and tissues. He reflected that this was, in point of fact, the way always employed of treating an internal disorder locally, and setting out from this principle, he drew up the formula of a preparation in the form of a crescent-shaped plaster, which is applied to the mastoid process, the swollen part of the skull behind the ear, exactly underneath which are situated those internal parts of the auditory organ of which we have just been speaking. To these external applications an auxiliary treatment is generally added, whenever there is any inflammation of the nose or throat, or where antiseptic precautions are necessitated by some discharge from the ear. The creative treatment, therefore, differs in nearly every case, but external applications are always the foundation of it.

Drouet's first experiments in his method were made at Paris, at the Institute bearing his name (Institut Drouet), and the results that he obtained there were so remarkable that two establishments of the same kind have lately been founded, one at Brussels and the other at London. The curative power of the new treatment is really marvellous. With the exception of cases which have been rendered completely incurable by previous surgical operations, it may be asserted that a radical cure is usually obtained, no matter what may be the nature or the duration of the affection which has caused the Deafness. Old people of 80 years have been completely cured, as well as patients who had been pronounced incurable by eminent aurists.

It is to be desired that Drouet Institutes may be speedily founded in Canada and America, but, meanwhile, deaf persons and those suffering from serious auricular affections will be glad to learn that they can undergo the Drouet treatment immediately if they wish. They need only write to the Drouet Institute, 72 Regent-parkroad, London, England, and the secretary will promptly send them all needful information, together with a pathological report form, which will enable them to give a detailed description of their case, and thus place the consulting surgeon in a position to prescribe the treatment necessary for their cure.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED.

Foreign Commissioners of the Pan-Am. Shown Around Toronto.

A Committee of State and Foreign Commissioners from the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo to the Canadian Industrial Exposition at Toronto visited the city yesterday and were entertained. The visitors were: J. A. Yerrington, Nevada, President Commissioners' Association; J. A. Flicher, California; C. M. Hambright, Wiscousin; T. M. Ald. Cox, Oliver, Lynd and Ward of the Reception Committee met the party on the arrival of the Corona at 10.30 and escorted them on a tallyho drive around the city to show them the sights.

President A. E. Ames of the Board of Trade entertained the visitors to a lunch at McConkey's. Among others present were: W. E. H. Massey, Vice-President of the Board of Trade; J. F. Ellis, second Vice-President; J. L. Spink, treasurer; E. A. Wills, Mayor Howland, J. S. Fullerton, K.C.; R. T. Coady, W. F. Maclean, M.P.; W. J. Douglas, J. E. Atkinson, Ald. Lamb, E. D. There was very little speechmaking following the luncheon. President Ames gracefully proposed the toast to "Our Guests," and Mr. Yerrington made a brief reply. The City Council was also toasted, and the Mayor replied in a speech of welcome to the visitors from the south.

The party were driven from McConkey's in tallyhos to the Exhibition, where they were the guests of the directors and thoroly enjoyed the afternoon.

They returned in the evening to Buffalo for the purpose of attending a meeting, which was to have been addressed by President McKinley.

POLICEMAN IS DISMISSED

Commissioners Find That G. W. Wrigley's Charges Against P.C. Welch Were Proven.

OFFENCE IS HELD TO BE SERIOUS

Board Was Unfavorably Impressed With Testimony of Defendant's Witnesses.

After listenting to the complaint of George Weston Wrigley against Policeman Welch (144), of No. 6 Division, the Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon dismissed the officer from the force. Nearly three hours were occupied in dealing with the charges, five witnesses being examined for complainant and eight for the policeman.

Facts of the Case.

The facts of the case are these: On the night of Aug. 21 Wrigley was arrested by Welch on a charge of disorderly conduct, and next day in the Police Court the constable swore that between 11 and 12 o'clock he saw Wrigley sitting on the curbstone near the junction of King and Queen-streets in Parkdale. Forty minutes later, he said, he found Wrigley asleep, and awoke him, whereupon defendant alleges that Wrigley called him a liar and was arrested.

Wrigley's Statement.

The defendant, who was subsequently discharged, swore that he had not been sitting on the curb over 10 minutes. Welch, he said, knocked him down, punched him and banged him against the patrol box. The officer's breath smelt of liquor.

The investigation yesterday afternoon was conducted in camera, altho the complainant made a request that the press be admitted. Mayor Howland was not present. At the close Chief Grasett handed out the finding of the board in the case, as follows:

Extreme Penalty Imposed.

"The commissioners, having heard all the testimony in reference to the charges against Policeman Welch (144) for improperly arresting and assaulting Mr. G. W. Wrigley, an inoffensive citizen, on the night of Aug. 21, 1901, after careful consideration, find the said charges fully proven. In view of the seriousness of the offence, added to the fact that the board were most unfavorably impressed with the evidence given by some of the witnesses called by Policeman Welch, the commissioners feel it to be their duty to inflict the extreme penalty of dismissal from the force, said dismissal to date from this day."

OIL IN ONTARIO

Also California and Texas—Something About Industry and Price.

Judging from reliable information concerning California oil stocks, some of these propositions have made speculators in them rich, and that on a very small investment. Take the New York Oil Co.'s stock, for instance. It first sold at 50 cents, and the present quotation is $200 a share. Union Oil advanced from $1 to $1500 a share, Hanford from $3 to $118, and other instances of remarkable advances in prices of oil issues are known. The above figures refer to California oil stocks alone, but there is also great activity in Texas oil propositions at present, and the province of Ontario also gives promise in one or two sections of producing considerably more oil than in the past. That section of Ontario around Petrolea has become a wealthy community from the product of oil wells, and remarkably good oil showings have been obtained near Chatham, in the county of Kent. One well alone in this section, owned by the Ontario & California Oil Co., is understood to have already produced oil at the rate of two barrels a day. This is a good showing, when it is considered than an Ontario well yielding one-sixth of a barrel a day is said to pay handsomely. The cheap labor and transportation facilities favor Canadian oil well products.

There appears in another column of this paper an advertisement of the Ontario & California Oil Co., Limited, a corporation which controls the absolute lease of a number of promising properties in Western Ontario, and has the option on the control of the Blue Bonnet Oil Company of Beaumont, Texas, which owns property close to the famous Lucas gusher on Spindle Top Heights, and also other properties in Texas. The Ontario & California Oil Co. also controls under option for development purposes 160 acres of oil lands in San Bonita County, Cal., and 4000 acres in Ventura County, Cal. The proposition is worth the attention of the investing public.

No arrangements have been made up to the present for the reception of the mission by the Emperor.

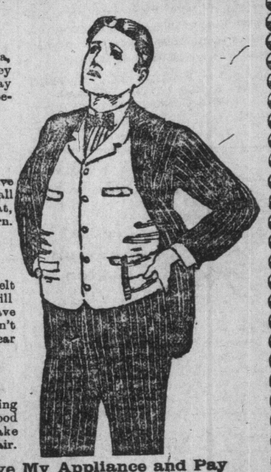
They Are Nature's Warning Cry.

They warn you of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Bright's Disease, Locomotor Ataxia, Paralysis, Sciatica, destruction of your vitality, and many other troubles. They will tell you that something is wrong with your health, something which may lay you up one of these dark days. Don't you think it cheaper to cure them now, before they make you helpless?



PAY WHEN CURED.

I make this proposition to you fairly and carry it out fairly—you don't have to pay till you are cured. I could not do this if my Belt was not superior to all other electric body appliances. It never costs a cent for repairs; I warrant that, and it gives a current which you can feel and regulate, and which will not burn. The cures show what it does.

DO YOU DOUBT IT?

Do you doubt that I can do business on this plan? I confess that if my Belt did not cure I could not, but my Belt does cure, and any man who is honest will pay for it when cured. That is the kind of men I want to deal with. If you have tried other Belts which burned you, or which fell to pieces in a few weeks, don't be discouraged, as I warrant my Belt to cure without burning, and to last a year without repairs. I take the other kind in trade.

I KNOW MY BUSINESS.

If you have worked at your trade for twenty years and were always studying to improve your methods, you would feel you had a right to claim a pretty good knowledge of it, wouldn't you? That is my position, and I don't think I make any claims that I can't prove, anyway. I take the chance, you don't. That's fair.

Any Man or Woman Who Will Secure Me Can Have My Appliance and Pay When Cured. I Ask No Pay in Advance.

Are you sick? Are you in pain? Are you a Weak Man? Are you tired of doctoring and paying out money without result? Then come to me or write to me. I AM THE ONLY MAN IN THE WORLD WHO HAS CONFIDENCE ENOUGH IN HIS REMEDY TO WAIT FOR HIS PAY UNTIL YOU ARE CURED.
