they can talk so much, with their mouths full, no one knows.
You know just how that is yourself, for you know when your mouth is just comfortably full, often your father will say. "For mercy's sake, Tommy, wait 'till your mouth is empty; for we can't understand a word you say!"
Now, of course, you remember such times, for they will happen in the best families, and even in the families who have the most elegant table manners. have the most elegant table manners.
