Armour and Company Sold Lamb in Boston at Over 11 Cents a Pound Profit.

Boston, May 5 .- Profiteering in meat was charged today against Armour and Company and its New England manager, John E. Wilson. The latter was arrested, was arraigned before Commissioner Hayes and released in nominal bonds for a hearing on May

Chicago, May 5.—Armour and Company issued the following statement here today concerning the profiteering charges made against it in Boston:

"The facts as reported, relative to our indictment in Boston, are not correct. Instead of being indicted we should be commended. There is a crying need for more food and the lamb supply is very short, the price being exceedingly high. Last winter we foresaw this condition and arranged to ship in lambs from New Zealand to cope with it. The New Zealand lambs which we have been selling in Boston are of unusually fine quality, but we are selling them below the market price for western lambs, and were it not for these New Zealand lambs the price of the western lambs the lambs the price of the western lambs and world be made by the members in cultivate and Fairbank Ratepayers' Association to send two speakers from the amale and stongly objected to sending speakers from the amalgamated or ganization, who he claimed were unable to give authenic information. Considerable diversity of objinion was expressed. J. Mills stated that 95 per cent. of the North Earlscourt residents were in favor of the division and signed a petition to that effect. N. Boylen, Maple Leaf, Weston, said that his section was opposed to a division.

SHORT POTATO CROP CAUSE OF HIGH PRICE

Mirrister of Agriculture Thinks, However, Drop Will Soon Take Place.

The minister of agriculture, in the legislature yesterday, answering Peter Heenan (Kenora), attributed the high cost of potatoes to a short crop. The cost of potatees to a short crop. The prevailing high price, he thought, would ratify the short crop and a drop might be expected. He had found out that there was considerable available stock of seed potatoes in Quebec and New Brunswick which could be procured in the event of it being required in Ontario. However, he had made inquiries and could find no serious shortage of seed, and no apprehension was felt in this regard.
