TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 11.

Challenge to Nationality. The west is receiving better leadership than the east in recognition of Canada's new national status resulting from the war and membership of the league of nations. While leading journals of the east are dumb, or, like The Mail and Empire, are calling after greater centralization of imperial authority, The Manitoba Free Press steadily enforces the larger politics that arose from Canada's appearance at the peace conference. Its able editor, Mr. J. W. Dafoe, is preaching

Mr. Lemieux replied to an entertain ment in the house of parliament with an address, in which he likened the attitude of Ontario and other parts of Canada towards the French language to that of the Germans in Alsace-Lorraine. The assertion provoked many Canadian English-speaking newspapers to wrath. And now Sir Lomer Gouin, leaving England for home, says that farm work for women in Canada is very hard, and we are only needing British women to do women's jobs, such as to be wives and domestic help. Most people, no doubt, would say that women do not work on Canadian farms. How, then, does Sir Lomer know that women's farm work in Canada is very hard? It can only be that he has seen some of them working very hard. But where? In truth, one has seen more feminine farming n Quebec than in other provinces. The war enlisted scores of thousands of hefty girls into farm work in England. Judging by the arriving pictures, many of them still prefer the freedom of leggings, cigarets and free speech to the kine, to what they knew in the old days. CHINA NOT NEGOTIATING WITH SOVIET GOVERNMENT Peking, May 10 .- Dr. Philip Tyau councillor of the foreign office, asked today regarding reports from Moscow, alleging that China had recognized the rights of the Russian Soviet government in the eastern Manchuria railway and had given a guarantee that the Chinese troops along the railway line would be withdrawn, said: 'No formal negotiations have been opened with the Soviet government. China's attitude at present is neutral. As long as our frontiers are not violated we will remain spectators."
