Hemming, The Adventurer

BY THEODORE ROBERTS

(Continued.) "Dick," he said, "Dick, I am sorry. By this time Anderson looked thoroughly ashamed of himself. "For God's sake, Bert, get out and leave me alone," he cried, huskily. "I've been drinking too much, you know."

twelve-why, that is very quick work. I mailed the note only twelve days ago," he said. "What note? and what are you talking about?" asked his bewildered hearer. "The note to you."

may suspect when she sees you," replied Mr. Pollin, with some show of uneasiness. "But Anderson?" asked Hemming. "Oh, he is exceedingly stupid, or he would have given up long ago. He never had the ghost of a chance," replied the beaming match-maker.

end of the table. The dame had finished her breakfast some time before, but, having examined the three envelopes carefully, curiosity about their contents kept her in her place. When Molly saw Hemming's handwriting—and on the stationery of a London club, at that—she leaned back, and for the flight of a dozen heart beats kept her eyes tight shut, and her hands clinched on the arms of the chair.

OUR POLITICS SHOULD BE MADE BETTER--NOT WORSE.

(Windsor Telegram.) The gravest national injury threatened by the G. T. P. agreement—a disastrous and irrevocable calamity to our national life—is the creation of an overshadowing corporation power. Before this power formed by the combination of a transcontinental Grand Trunk system, individual industries and public men would be helpless.

It is not out of philanthropic charity to the poor promoters that a government passes such legislation as the G. T. P. agreement, presenting a railway to a corporation which does not invest one dollar, and authorizing the issue of tens of millions of dollars of over-capitalization for the enrichment of a group of promoters at the expense of the people.

WANTS ARBITRATION.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Dr. W. G. Evans Darby, Secretary of the Peace Society of London, Eng., presented to President Roosevelt today a memorial from the Society urging that a treaty of arbitration be negotiated between the U. S. and Great Britain. The President informed Dr. Darby that he was in entire sympathy with the movement and that already steps looking to such a treaty had been taken; indeed, that negotiations for such a treaty were now in progress.

GETTING READY FOR NOV. 3rd.

New York, Nov. 1.—A Naples dispatch to the Herald dated Oct. 31, says: Since this morning Mount Vesuvius has again been giving signs of activity, the crater noiselessly emitting dense columns of dust which the wind carries westward in such quantities that at Torre and Portici umbrellas are necessary.

SHOT HER HUSBAND.

Jamesstown, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Mattie E. Carter tonight shot and killed her husband, Wm. E. Carter. She then sent for an officer and gave herself up. She says the shooting was for an attempted assault on her daughter, Carter's stepdaughter. The Carters are negroes.

Very often the vital resources are small at forty-two, but if not then, between fifty-seven and sixty-two years of age there is a strange slowing down and loss of vitality. It is important that this transient period of decay should be checked; strength must be imparted to the tired brain, the weakened nerves must be fortified. The wise man will use Ferrozone whose potency is particularly applicable to these critical periods. Ferrozone quickens the whole being, imparts vigor and power, pushes back the onset of senility in a very manifest way. It's because Ferrozone gives strength, vitality and vigor that it is useful to old men. Try it. Price 25c.
