SCIENCE YELL—Rah, Ree, Rye.

K. C. Y.

Leg Tan Phi,

Fac App Sci!

First year men in Medicine should find out when dissecting material is to be given out and be on hand, as they will thus get to work earlier.

Watch the various bulletins, as notices of importance are constantly being posted.

There are large libraries connected with the different faculties from which students may draw books. From those wishing to borrow books, a deposit of five dollars is required, which is refunded when the books are returned.

You will never have the same opportunity of influencing others as you have while at college. Use it.

Gowns may be obtained from the janitor of the Arts building, and Science Students may also obtain gowns, overalls and caps, T-squares, etc., from the janitor of the Engineering building.

Keep up with your work. When once behind you cannot catch up.

New students are urged to connect themselves with the college societies. By doing this they will not only derive the benefits which the different societies aim to confer, but will get to know students of other years and other faculties.

Do not treat the men collecting subscriptions for College societies or other objects as public enemies, but rather lighten their work by subscribing as often and as promptly as you possibly can.

It is the duty of every student to support in every way he can all the athletic interests of the University.
